Mr. Aalto, who was named for a one-year term starting July 1, succeeds Raymond S. Quackenbush of Saugerties.

OTHER OFFICERS named were:

W. Sherrill Keyser, Kingston; Leonard Herrick, Kingston, and Elwood Hitchcock, East Jewett, as vice presidents; Sherwood Lasher, Kingston, Council commissioner; Robert F. Commander Keane pointed out the opportunities that lay ahead for "our youth and how the adults of today have opportunities never before given them to work with their children to prepare them for the future."

Progress was noted in the report of Raymond S. Quackenbush, the retiring president, who said that during the three years of his presidency the Council had grown from 72 units to 104 and from 1,663 boys to 2,562. He added that the number of boys using the long-term camping facilities at the Council camp each summer almost had been doubled. He also pointed out that unit leaders were given better opportunities for training and that there were now more activities for the units and boys of the two-county area.

Paralysis Will Last For Months

Cawston Rescued By Companions

James E. Cawston, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Cawston of Sawkill road, town of Ulster, suffered a broken neck in a diving accident in Esopus creek near the end of Esopus street at the back end of Kraus Farm in the town of Ulster about 4:30 p. m. yesterday while swimming with three of his friends.

After treatment at Kingston Hospital young Cawston was rushed by ambulance to Albany General Hospital and underwent an operation last night.

His physician told The Freeman this morning that the boy's general condition is "satisfactory" but that he suffered a "broken neck" and is paralyzed from there down.

"IT WILL REQUIRE months before we'll know how much recovery, if any, he'll get" from the paralysis, he said.

Young Cawston was swimming with James Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin W. Brown of Sawkill road, Sidney Davis and Ronnie Nagele, all about the same age as Cawston, when the accident occurred. The point in the creek where the boys were swimming is known as the "sandbar."

Mrs. Brown said the Cawston youth had swung from a "cable" attached to a tree, released himself and dived into the creek where he apparently struck his head on the bottom.

HE ROSE to the surface in an unconscious or semi-conscious condition and was pulled to the bank by the three boys. "The three boys had all they could do to get him out," she said. He was described as a "big boy for his age."

The three boys managed to get the upper part of his body out of the water in a shallow part along the bank. Young Brown then swam across the creek and raced to his home a short distance away where he reported the accident to his father, a member of Ulster Hose Company No. 5.

BROWN CALLED Ulster Hose which dispatched a light truck and stretcher to the scene. Kingston Hospital was also notified and sent an ambulance to Ulster Hose Company where the boy was transfered and rushed to Kingston Hospital. Cawston was treated at the hospital by Dr. John R. Roberts who ordered his transferral to Albany Hospital.

Mrs. Brown said the boys had only been swimming for a few minutes when the accident occurred. Several of the boys had swung on the cable and dived before Cawston was injured.

SHE SAID the accident came as Cawston made his second dive. Her boy, Jimmie, ran home and when he arrived he was "so all out he could hardly

Dealer Is Against Display

New York, May 25 (AP)—A big-time dealer in photographs has balked at a request to produce his business records for a Senate subcommittee investigating the effect of pornography on juvenile crime.

Irving Klaw, known as "King of the Pin-ups," told the subcommittee headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D.-Tenn.) yesterday that such records might tend to incriminate or degrade him.

HE ALSO maintained that the subpoena for his appearance before the Kefauver group was "vague and illegal."

Kefauver, however, ordered him to appear with the records when the subcommittee resumes its hearing here tomorrow.

New PO Raise Approved

Would Fire Deceitful Employes

Washington, May 25 (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) said today a "mystifying fabric of falsehoods" is clouding the record of a Senate search for graft in buying of uniforms for the armed forces.

Noting that two witnesses before the Senate Investigations Subcommittee on which Mundt serves have admitted lying under oath, Mundt said conflicts in the testimony of others shows some of them also "are trying to deceive us."

"THIS IS AWFUL," Mundt said, "it's a terrible spectacle." He added that any government worker caught trying to deceive the subcommittee "ought to be fired."

One witness was fired late yesterday. The army announced the immediate dismissal of David Pollack as a contract analyst for the quartermaster corps in Philadelphia—a job paying between $5,940 and $6,940 a year.

THE ANNOUNCED reason was that Pollack's testimony yesterday "differed from testimony he gave in a previous closed session" of the subcommittee. Polack had conceded that, but he disputed testimony from another witness that he had taken money from a private firm dealing with the army.

The other witness who admitted lying under oath was Joseph G. Forreca of Clifton, N. J., a former chief inspector for the army. He denied but later admitted receiving gifts from a man associated with the same firm.

No-Dent Fenders

Buffalo, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Does your wife tend to take a few informalities with the fenders of your car? The Cornell aeronautical laboratory may have the answers to your woes, plastic fenders. They pop right back into shape after being clobbered against the garage door. Cornell yesterday reported promising results from its experiments with the rumple-proof fender. The research is being sponsored by Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., which had to shell out 12-million dollars in auto damage claims in 1951.

No Casualties Result

Taipei, Formosa, May 25 (AP)—Communist artillery on Amoy fired five shells at little Quemoy Island this afternoon but caused no casualties, the Nationalist Chinese Defense Ministry said. Sunday the Reds poured 55 shells into the Quemoy Island group 120 miles west of here. Despite such sporadic shellings and an occasional brush between Communist and Nationalist planes, the offshore island situation appears to have entered a relatively quiet period.

Committee-Adopted Measure Carries 8 Per Cent Salary Boost for 500,000

Washington, May 25 (AP)—The Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee today approved a new postal pay bill carrying average raises of about 8 per cent for the 500,000 postal workers.

Members said they believed it would be acceptable to President Eisenhower who vetoed a bill providing an average 8.6 per cent pay boost. The Senate upheld the veto yesterday.

The new bill received the endorsement of the Post Office Committee in a half hour session.

Chairman Olin D. Johnston (D.-S. C.) said the bill, which he sponsored, was approved unanimously, but only after the committee had voted down a measure proposed by Sen. Carlson (R.-Kan.), administration spokesman on the pay issue.

THE CARLSON proposal was rejected on a straight party line vote, Johnston reported.

The new measure would cost an estimated 162 million dollars a year or 17 million dollars less than the bill vetoed by the President.

It would give each postal worker at least a 6 per cent pay raise, the floor which the administration has been willing to accept. The vetoed bill had a 7 per cent minimum.

COMMITTEE AIDES said the new bill also contains most of the job reclassification authority asked by the President. However, they said it does not raise some upper bracket salaries as much as Eisenhower wanted.

Ignoring the advice of Sen. Neely (D.-W. Va.) they were following Eisenhower "into a political graveyard," senators yesterday upheld the President's veto of a bill which would have given 500,000 postal workers a pay increase averaging 8.6 per cent. The President called this too high.

The 54-39 Senate vote—8 votes short of the two-thirds margin needed to override a veto—gave the President a major political victory in the first congressional challenge of his veto power. Voting to override were 46 Democrats and 8 Republicans; voting to sustain were 37 Republicans and 2 Democrats.

LEADING an unsuccessful fight to override the veto, Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D.-S.C.) called Eisenhower "that poor, misguided and confused man in the White House." He urged the Senate to resist "complete domination" by the Republican administration.

After the Senate sustained the veto and thereby killed the bill, leaders in both parties moved to deal with the practical problem of voting some form of postal pay hike.

Identical bills were introduced in both Senate and House for a pay raise which Sen. Carlson (R.-Kan.) said he knew would be acceptable to the President. Companion bills were offered by Carlson, Rep. Rees (R.-Kan.) and Rep. Murray (D.-Tenn.) calling for an average increase of around 7.9 per cent and a minimum raise of 6 per cent. Sen. Johnston, chairman of the Post Office Committee, offered another which he said would average 8 per cent.

THE BILL VETOED by the President called for an average 8.6 per cent raise in pay with fringe benefits raising the total to 8.8 per cent. The President said that was too much. It also carried a postal job reclassifica-

Cut Is Approved In Compensation Rates of Workers

New York, May 25 (AP)—The state administration today formally approves a 14 per cent cut in workmen's compensation rates, estimated to save the employers 41 million dollars a year.

The cut was announced last night by Leffert Holz, state superintendent of insurance, at a fund-raising dinner for the Citizens Union, a private good government organization.

HOLZ SAID the reduction was made possible by cutting administrative expenses and because of payments already made to the State Insurance Fund, the main repository of the money paid by employers against possible use.

Gov. Averell Harriman, present at the dinner, said he hopes for still further savings for the employers in the future.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT was made during a question-and-answer period, with the participation of a panel of publishers, editors and broadcasting executives.

Ogden R. Reid, president and publisher of the New York Herald Tribune, asked the governor whether there was any possibility of easing the "penalty" of high workmen's compensation costs as a means of attracting and holding industry in the state. Harriman then referred him to Holz, who made the announcement.

THE INSURANCE superintendent did not discuss any details as to how the reduced compensation costs would be apportioned.

He followed the announcement with an endorsement of Harriman's appeal earlier in the evening for a $1.25 national minimum hourly wage.

The Eisenhower Administration favors raising the present 75-cents hourly minimum to 90 cents.

Conference Set Friday On Parking

A conference and preliminary inspection tour in preparation for the local off-street parking survey will be held Friday, Mayor Frederick H. Stang said today.

A letter received today from the Automobile Club of New York proposed an "organizational meeting" at 11 a. m. Friday, and Mayor Stang said it would be held at that time.

An outline of the scope of the study at that time was suggested, and the letter also proposed a "preliminary inspection tour" after the meeting to make tentative selections of sites.

It was also proposed that the city engineer, police chief, representatives of the Common Council, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce traffic committee, assessor and other interested persons be invited to the session.

Charles J. Murphy of the club's traffic engineering department, guest here earlier this month at a dinner meeting of the Central Business Men's Association, offered assistance in survey, and Mayor Stang notified him this week that his office would assist in making arrangements.

Burke Favored by Ike

Rear Admiral Nominated to Replace Carney as Chief of Naval Operations

Washington, May 25 (AP)—President Eisenhower today nominated Rear Adm. Arleigh A. Burke to be chief of naval operations succeeding Adm. Robert B. Carney. Carney was the center of a recent controversy over the likelihood of a Communist attack in the Formosa area.

The President also nominated:

1. Adm. Arthur W. Radford for a new two-year term as chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

2. Gen. Nathan F. Twining for a new two-year term as air force chief of staff.

EARLIER this month Eisenhower nominated Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor to succeed Gen. Matthew Ridgway as army chief of staff.

Ridgway, who has been critical of administration plans to cut army manpower, is to be replaced by Taylor July 1.

Burke's nomination to succeed Carney will be effective Aug. 16, when Carney's two-year term expires.

The controversy over Carney centered on the question whether he did or did not tell a group of newsmen a Red attack in the Formosa Strait was likely by mid-April.

CARNEY DISCUSSED the subject at an off-the-record dinner and some of the participants later reported the mid-April date as a time when the administration expected the Reds to hit. Carney subsequently was identified as the speaker.

Later the admiral denied he had spoken of expectations. He said he only discussed capabilities and said the Communists could make an attack by that time if they chose.

Some of the newsmen who took part in the dinner briefing differed among themselves as to just what Carney had said or meant. Some agreed with Carney's version, others with the previously published accounts of the dinner.

The incident brought an implied Eisenhower rebuke of Carney.

28-Million Fund To Give Vaccine To 13,350,000

Washington, May 25 (AP)—Secretary of Welfare Hobby said today a proposed 28-million-dollar federal fund would provide free polio vaccine for about 13,350,000 children.

She estimated this number represents 22 per cent of the nation's children.

In a statement sent to the House Commerce Committee, Mrs. Hobby also reaffirmed her confidence that the nationwide inoculation program "will result in effective protection against infantile paralysis for the children of the nation."

MRS. HOBBY said federal plans are designed to guarantee that no child up to 19 years old would be denied vaccine because of inability to pay for it.

Mrs. Hobby is out of town. Asst. Secretary Roswell Perkins appeared before the committee for her and read her statement.

President Eisenhower last week asked for an appropriation of 28 million dollars which he said would be used to supply vaccine to those unable to pay for it.

THE APPROPRIATION question is not directly before the commerce committee. Chairman Priest (D.-Tenn.) said the purpose of these hearings is to explore the whole situation and draft legislation giving the Welfare Department broader powers over distribution and safety testing of any new drug products intended for mass use.

Mrs. Hobby's statement dealt almost solely with the adminis-

Armistice Line Reminds of Power

Tokyo, May 25 (AP)—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, preparing to leave the Far East to become U. S. army chief of staff, said today the Korean armistice line should be "a constant reminder to the Communist world and encouragement to the free world that we defeated the Communists on the battlefield."

"We of the free world don't think with the pride about our accomplishments in Korea to the degree the record indicates," said Taylor, 8th Army commander at the time of the truce and Far East commander since April 1.

TAYLOR TOLD the Tokyo Foreign Correspondents Club that the 8th Army manning the Korean front "is just as sound today, just as battleworthy, as when the armistice was signed."

Taylor will become chief of staff June 30. He replaces Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who was displeased with cuts recently voted in the army budget. Ridgway will retire.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, commander of Far East army forces and the U. S. 8th Army, will take Taylor's Far East command.

Claims Danger Remains Despite Soviet Switch

Washington, May 25 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles cautioned Congress today against interpreting what he called a "striking reversal" of Soviet policy as "indicating that the danger is over."

He said if this country took such a view the strength of the free world would "quickly disintegrate."

Dulles told the House Foreign Affairs Committee there is hope that the Communists will "adopt more tolerable policies" but added:

"We can hope that a new day is coming; but too often men have been lured to their doom by mistaking a false dawn for the real dawn.

"We must not make that mistake."

President Eisenhower recently expressed qualified hope that current Soviet policies would lead to the dawn of a new day.

Testifying in support of the administration's 3½ billion dollar foreign aid program for the year beginning July 1, Dulles told the committee that the Soviets now seem ready for top level talks with the West.

Recent sharp criticism by Pravda, the official Communist newspaper, of the West's ideas for a conference program, seems to be based on the main complaint "that we do not seem to be willing to talk long enough," Dulles said.

He listed these four examples of what he termed a "striking reversal" of Soviet policy: The Austrian peace treaty, the upcoming pilgrimage of top Soviet leaders to Yugoslavia, a new stand on disarmament and apparent willingness to hold a top level conference.

"No one can be confident as to the meaning of these four reversals," Dulles said.

Body of Boy Found

Stamford, Conn., May 25 (AP)—The body of Duane Patten, 9, of Ridgefield, was found about 175 feet off Fairview Avenue Beach here in two feet of water last night by four clam diggers. The child drowned with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mendonga of Stamford, when a small fishing boat capsized in Long Island Sound. The father, William Patten, 49, was rescued by boatsmen. The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Mendonga were recovered within an hour after the tragedy.

KHS Seniors Are Awarded Lions Club Scholarships

John Houghtaling of 66 Hunter street and Edward J. Kelley of St. Remy were announced Tuesday noon as winners of the Lions Club $300 retailing scholarships.

Both students will graduate from Kingston High School in June and both plan to enter Mohawk Technical Institute at Utica for advanced study in retailing.

The announcement was made at the regular luncheon meeting of the Lions Club at the Governor Clinton Hotel. The Rev. Robert T. Shellenberger, chairman of the club's education committee, was in charge of the program, at which the two scholarship recipients were guests. The retailing scholarships are awarded annually by the Lions Club.

Speaker at Tuesday's meeting was Loryne B. Connick, head of the commercial department at Kingston High School. He outlined the department's cooperative retailing, secretarial and clerical training programs, stressing the benefits derived from the part-time actual employment schedule worked out with the cooperation of local businessmen.

Color slides taken at the J. C. Penney Co. store when retailing students took over all operations for a day recently were shown.

Mercury Hits 92 In City Tuesday

It's not the heat . . ., we say, but whatever it is, we know it's warm this Maytime.

Yesterday, for instance, produced a mid-summerish high of 92 degrees between 4:30 and 5 p. m., and an 83 at 10 a. m., today with the sun clouded over, hinted at more of the same later today.

WELL THEN, if you must say it, go ahead . . . . It's the humidity. It was that too yesterday with a reading of 61 in the city engineer's office at about the time of the peak temperature in the afternoon.

Today the temperature and humidity were about even Stephen . . . an all-around 83 between 10 and 11 a. m.

Tuesday's high, however, was no record for that date. The mercury reached 92 on May 24 in 1936 and again in 1947.

Artificial Price Raising Is Called Economic Menace

New York, May 25 (AP)—The idea of hiking consumer purchasing power through artificial means was described by the National Association of Manufacturers yesterday as "an economic menace which simply drives up prices and reduces the value of money."

With the release of a new study, "so people may prosper," the NAM presented to the public what it termed "a program for national prosperity based on full production and increased productivity." At the same time, it expressed sharp criticism of proposals for "needling our economy by hypodermics of purchasing power."

Kenneth R. Miller, senior vice president of NAM, said, "the new economic analysis completely refutes the purchasing power theories currently sponsored by Walter Reuther of the CIO, and Leon Keyserling, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers under President Truman. This study has been issued for the purpose of helping individual Americans decide on the courses of action that will bring continuing growth and prosperity."

"The program," said Miller, "emphasises the fact that without rapid growth and expansion of our productive facilities, through capital investment, the nation will not be able to keep pace with our fast growing requirements for jobs and goods and services."

"On the other hand," he added, "purchasing power theorists apparently believe that the only important thing is to apply an

It's not the heat . . ., we say, but whatever it is, we know it's warm this Maytime.

Yesterday, for instance, produced a mid-summerish high of 92 degrees between 4:30 and 5 p. m., and an 83 at 10 a. m., today with the sun clouded over, hinted at more of the same later today.

WELL THEN, if you must say it, go ahead . . . . It's the humidity. It was that too yesterday with a reading of 61 in the city engineer's office at about the time of the peak temperature in the afternoon.

Today the temperature and humidity were about even Stephen . . . an all-around 83 between 10 and 11 a. m.

Tuesday's high, however, was no record for that date. The mercury reached 92 on May 24 in 1936 and again in 1947.

Committee-Adopted Measure Carries 8 Per Cent Salary Boost for 500,000

Washington, May 25 (AP)—The Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee today approved a new postal pay bill carrying average raises of about 8 per cent for the 500,000 postal workers.

Members said they believed it would be acceptable to President Eisenhower who vetoed a bill providing an average 8.6 per cent pay boost. The Senate upheld the veto yesterday.

The new bill received the endorsement of the Post Office Committee in a half hour session.

Chairman Olin D. Johnston (D.-S. C.) said the bill, which he sponsored, was approved unanimously, but only after the committee had voted down a measure proposed by Sen. Carlson (R.-Kan.), administration spokesman on the pay issue.

THE CARLSON proposal was rejected on a straight party line vote, Johnston reported.

The new measure would cost an estimated 162 million dollars a year or 17 million dollars less than the bill vetoed by the President.

It would give each postal worker at least a 6 per cent pay raise, the floor which the administration has been willing to accept. The vetoed bill had a 7 per cent minimum.

COMMITTEE AIDES said the new bill also contains most of the job reclassification authority asked by the President. However, they said it does not raise some upper bracket salaries as much as Eisenhower wanted.

Ignoring the advice of Sen. Neely (D.-W. Va.) they were following Eisenhower "into a political graveyard," senators yesterday upheld the President's veto of a bill which would have given 500,000 postal workers a pay increase averaging 8.6 per cent. The President called this too high.

The 54-39 Senate vote—8 votes short of the two-thirds margin needed to override a veto—gave the President a major political victory in the first congressional challenge of his veto power. Voting to override were 46 Democrats and 8 Republicans; voting to sustain were 37 Republicans and 2 Democrats.

LEADING an unsuccessful fight to override the veto, Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D.-S.C.) called Eisenhower "that poor, misguided and confused man in the White House." He urged the Senate to resist "complete domination" by the Republican administration.

After the Senate sustained the veto and thereby killed the bill, leaders in both parties moved to deal with the practical problem of voting some form of postal pay hike.

Identical bills were introduced in both Senate and House for a pay raise which Sen. Carlson (R.-Kan.) said he knew would be acceptable to the President. Companion bills were offered by Carlson, Rep. Rees (R.-Kan.) and Rep. Murray (D.-Tenn.) calling for an average increase of around 7.9 per cent and a minimum raise of 6 per cent. Sen. Johnston, chairman of the Post Office Committee, offered another which he said would average 8 per cent.

THE BILL VETOED by the President called for an average 8.6 per cent raise in pay with fringe benefits raising the total to 8.8 per cent. The President said that was too much. It also carried a postal job reclassifica-

Cut Is Approved In Compensation Rates of Workers

New York, May 25 (AP)—The state administration today formally approves a 14 per cent cut in workmen's compensation rates, estimated to save the employers 41 million dollars a year.

The cut was announced last night by Leffert Holz, state superintendent of insurance, at a fund-raising dinner for the Citizens Union, a private good government organization.

HOLZ SAID the reduction was made possible by cutting administrative expenses and because of payments already made to the State Insurance Fund, the main repository of the money paid by employers against possible use.

Gov. Averell Harriman, present at the dinner, said he hopes for still further savings for the employers in the future.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT was made during a question-and-answer period, with the participation of a panel of publishers, editors and broadcasting executives.

Ogden R. Reid, president and publisher of the New York Herald Tribune, asked the governor whether there was any possibility of easing the "penalty" of high workmen's compensation costs as a means of attracting and holding industry in the state. Harriman then referred him to Holz, who made the announcement.

THE INSURANCE superintendent did not discuss any details as to how the reduced compensation costs would be apportioned.

He followed the announcement with an endorsement of Harriman's appeal earlier in the evening for a $1.25 national minimum hourly wage.

The Eisenhower Administration favors raising the present 75-cents hourly minimum to 90 cents.

White Plains, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Sidney Mautner, 56, former editor in chief of International News Photos in New York, died yesterday at the White Plains Hospital after a year's illness. Mautner, who held many executive posts in the field of news pictures, worked on the Chicago Sun, and served as picture consultant to the International Press Service, a division of the State Department's international administration. At the time of his illness he was sales and promotion executive for the Monarch Syndicate, Inc., an international news featuers agency. He lived in Scarsdale, N. Y.

KHS Seniors Are Awarded Lions Club Scholarships

John Houghtaling of 66 Hunter street and Edward J. Kelley of St. Remy were announced Tuesday noon as winners of the Lions Club $300 retailing scholarships.

Both students will graduate from Kingston High School in June and both plan to enter Mohawk Technical Institute at Utica for advanced study in retailing.

The announcement was made at the regular luncheon meeting of the Lions Club at the Governor Clinton Hotel. The Rev. Robert T. Shellenberger, chairman of the club's education committee, was in charge of the program, at which the two scholarship recipients were guests. The retailing scholarships are awarded annually by the Lions Club.

Speaker at Tuesday's meeting was Loryne B. Connick, head of the commercial department at Kingston High School. He outlined the department's cooperative retailing, secretarial and clerical training programs, stressing the benefits derived from the part-time actual employment schedule worked out with the cooperation of local businessmen.

Color slides taken at the J. C. Penney Co. store when retailing students took over all operations for a day recently were shown.

Conference Set Friday On Parking

A conference and preliminary inspection tour in preparation for the local off-street parking survey will be held Friday, Mayor Frederick H. Stang said today.

A letter received today from the Automobile Club of New York proposed an "organizational meeting" at 11 a. m. Friday, and Mayor Stang said it would be held at that time.

An outline of the scope of the study at that time was suggested, and the letter also proposed a "preliminary inspection tour" after the meeting to make tentative selections of sites.

It was also proposed that the city engineer, police chief, representatives of the Common Council, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce traffic committee, assessor and other interested persons be invited to the session.

Charles J. Murphy of the club's traffic engineering department, guest here earlier this month at a dinner meeting of the Central Business Men's Association, offered assistance in survey, and Mayor Stang notified him this week that his office would assist in making arrangements.

Rear Admiral Nominated to Replace Carney as Chief of Naval Operations

Washington, May 25 (AP)—President Eisenhower today nominated Rear Adm. Arleigh A. Burke to be chief of naval operations succeeding Adm. Robert B. Carney. Carney was the center of a recent controversy over the likelihood of a Communist attack in the Formosa area.

The President also nominated:

1. Adm. Arthur W. Radford for a new two-year term as chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

2. Gen. Nathan F. Twining for a new two-year term as air force chief of staff.

EARLIER this month Eisenhower nominated Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor to succeed Gen. Matthew Ridgway as army chief of staff.

Ridgway, who has been critical of administration plans to cut army manpower, is to be replaced by Taylor July 1.

Burke's nomination to succeed Carney will be effective Aug. 16, when Carney's two-year term expires.

The controversy over Carney centered on the question whether he did or did not tell a group of newsmen a Red attack in the Formosa Strait was likely by mid-April.

CARNEY DISCUSSED the subject at an off-the-record dinner and some of the participants later reported the mid-April date as a time when the administration expected the Reds to hit. Carney subsequently was identified as the speaker.

Later the admiral denied he had spoken of expectations. He said he only discussed capabilities and said the Communists could make an attack by that time if they chose.

Some of the newsmen who took part in the dinner briefing differed among themselves as to just what Carney had said or meant. Some agreed with Carney's version, others with the previously published accounts of the dinner.

The incident brought an implied Eisenhower rebuke of Carney.

Central Business Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Central Business Men's Association Thursday evening at 7:30 at the Y.M.C.A. All members are requested to be present.

28-Million Fund To Give Vaccine To 13,350,000

Washington, May 25 (AP)—Secretary of Welfare Hobby said today a proposed 28-million-dollar federal fund would provide free polio vaccine for about 13,350,000 children.

She estimated this number represents 22 per cent of the nation's children.

In a statement sent to the House Commerce Committee, Mrs. Hobby also reaffirmed her confidence that the nationwide inoculation program "will result in effective protection against infantile paralysis for the children of the nation."

MRS. HOBBY said federal plans are designed to guarantee that no child up to 19 years old would be denied vaccine because of inability to pay for it.

Mrs. Hobby is out of town. Asst. Secretary Roswell Perkins appeared before the committee for her and read her statement.

President Eisenhower last week asked for an appropriation of 28 million dollars which he said would be used to supply vaccine to those unable to pay for it.

THE APPROPRIATION question is not directly before the commerce committee. Chairman Priest (D.-Tenn.) said the purpose of these hearings is to explore the whole situation and draft legislation giving the Welfare Department broader powers over distribution and safety testing of any new drug products intended for mass use.

Mrs. Hobby's statement dealt almost solely with the adminis-

Armistice Line Reminds of Power

Tokyo, May 25 (AP)—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, preparing to leave the Far East to become U. S. army chief of staff, said today the Korean armistice line should be "a constant reminder to the Communist world and encouragement to the free world that we defeated the Communists on the battlefield."

"We of the free world don't think with the pride about our accomplishments in Korea to the degree the record indicates," said Taylor, 8th Army commander at the time of the truce and Far East commander since April 1.

TAYLOR TOLD the Tokyo Foreign Correspondents Club that the 8th Army manning the Korean front "is just as sound today, just as battleworthy, as when the armistice was signed."

Taylor will become chief of staff June 30. He replaces Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who was displeased with cuts recently voted in the army budget. Ridgway will retire.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, commander of Far East army forces and the U. S. 8th Army, will take Taylor's Far East command.

Claims Danger Remains Despite Soviet Switch

Washington, May 25 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles cautioned Congress today against interpreting what he called a "striking reversal" of Soviet policy as "indicating that the danger is over."

He said if this country took such a view the strength of the free world would "quickly disintegrate."

Dulles told the House Foreign Affairs Committee there is hope that the Communists will "adopt more tolerable policies" but added:

"We can hope that a new day is coming; but too often men have been lured to their doom by mistaking a false dawn for the real dawn.

"We must not make that mistake."

President Eisenhower recently expressed qualified hope that current Soviet policies would lead to the dawn of a new day.

Testifying in support of the administration's 3½ billion dollar foreign aid program for the year beginning July 1, Dulles told the committee that the Soviets now seem ready for top level talks with the West.

Recent sharp criticism by Pravda, the official Communist newspaper, of the West's ideas for a conference program, seems to be based on the main complaint "that we do not seem to be willing to talk long enough," Dulles said.

He listed these four examples of what he termed a "striking reversal" of Soviet policy: The Austrian peace treaty, the upcoming pilgrimage of top Soviet leaders to Yugoslavia, a new stand on disarmament and apparent willingness to hold a top level conference.

"No one can be confident as to the meaning of these four reversals," Dulles said.

Body of Boy Found

Stamford, Conn., May 25 (AP)—The body of Duane Patten, 9, of Ridgefield, was found about 175 feet off Fairview Avenue Beach here in two feet of water last night by four clam diggers. The child drowned with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mendonga of Stamford, when a small fishing boat capsized in Long Island Sound. The father, William Patten, 49, was rescued by boatsmen. The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Mendonga were recovered within an hour after the tragedy.

Artificial Price Raising Is Called Economic Menace

New York, May 25 (AP)—The idea of hiking consumer purchasing power through artificial means was described by the National Association of Manufacturers yesterday as "an economic menace which simply drives up prices and reduces the value of money."

With the release of a new study, "so people may prosper," the NAM presented to the public what it termed "a program for national prosperity based on full production and increased productivity." At the same time, it expressed sharp criticism of proposals for "needling our economy by hypodermics of purchasing power."

Kenneth R. Miller, senior vice president of NAM, said, "the new economic analysis completely refutes the purchasing power theories currently sponsored by Walter Reuther of the CIO, and Leon Keyserling, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers under President Truman. This study has been issued for the purpose of helping individual Americans decide on the courses of action that will bring continuing growth and prosperity."

"The program," said Miller, "emphasises the fact that without rapid growth and expansion of our productive facilities, through capital investment, the nation will not be able to keep pace with our fast growing requirements for jobs and goods and services."

"On the other hand," he added, "purchasing power theorists apparently believe that the only important thing is to apply an

Reds Say Waste Stalls Hospitals

Moscow, May 25 (AP) — In Sochi, popular Black Sea health resort, it sometimes takes 10 years to build a sanitarium.

Trud, official newspaper of the Central Council of Trade Unions of the Soviet Union, has a special interest in this because many of the sanitariums and rest homes in resort towns are run by the trade unions. It exposes the situation with a charge that massive waste is committed in Sochi.

The trouble, says Trud, is that Sochi alone there are 17 organizations responsible for construction and six of these deal with blueprinting or drafting. And frequently the builders don't know what the designers are doing and vice versa.

ATTENDING FAREWELL supper for the Rev. Kenneth Dearstyne Monday night were seated (l-r) Mrs. Dearstyne, Joanna and Jane Dearstyne and the Rev. Mr. Dearstyne. KINGSTON, NEW YORK, MAY 25, 1955

PRECISION

Those who like neatness and rounded corners in the world's and their personal affairs must marvel at the quirk of history which marked May 5, 1955, as the date for the official ending of the Allied occupation of West Germany.

For May 5, 1954, exactly a decade ago, may be viewed as the last previous date during all of which the Germans still clung to legal sway over their shattered domain.

By late the next day, May 6, members of the German high command were seated around a table at General Eisenhower's headquarters in Reims, France, setting in motion their country's unconditional surrender.

Now the Germans have their independence once more, along with membership in the Allies' new defense family, NATO, and the authority to rearm.

Free men must pray they will use well their regained privileges and new opportunities. It is time German strength was employed for mankind, not against it.

NO BUST IN HOUSE BOOM

Home builders report that some time in August the ten millionth house since World War II will be erected. Since 1950 the number of new houses built has exceeded the number of new households formed.

The combination of these facts, added to the realization that any large cut in housing construction would seriously affect the nation's economy, has caused some alarm among those who fear the threat of overbuilding. The results of surveys conducted by the Federal Housing Administration and the Veterans Administration, however, indicate no existing housing surplus and there is no surplus pending on the local markets.

Housing needs piled up between the years 1930 and 1949 when home building lagged far behind the market demands. That deficit has been met, but a trend to the suburbs has created the need for more houses and housing settlements. Increased personal incomes have encouraged the building of the second and newer home. In addition, families are growing larger. It seems to parents that apartments are growing smaller and apartment congestion makes a new house almost a necessity. High apartment rents, too, have acted as a good argument for putting the rent money into one's own home.

With the housing supply and demand becoming more stabilized, financing may become tighter. Otherwise, home builders assure the nation, there is no cause for alarm.

BID FOR TITO

The Kremlin is making a determined effort to win Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia back to the fold. This month several top Russian leaders will visit Yugoslavia. The initiative for the visit was taken in Moscow.

Should Tito be won by the blandishments of the Russians it might have serious consequences for the West. Although Yugoslavia is officially a neutral state it has certain economic and military ties with the West and is abiding by the agreement not to ship strategic materials to Russsia.

When Tito broke with the Kremlin few expected that he would survive. He was denounced by the Communist Party, in every country except his own, as a vile traitor and a tool of the West. Despite this he increased his hold on the government, entered into negotiations with the West and enjoys an independence and security today that would have been impossible had he remained under the Russian thumb.

Tito is a Marxist. He is in complete disagreement with the politics of the West. It is to be hoped, however, that he will see, as he has in the past, that the best hope for his country's progress and independence does not lie in an alliance with the Russians. Should he not see that, it is possible that in time he will suffer the lot of all Communists who dared to defy the high priests of communism who hand down their edicts from the Kremlin.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

ANEURIN BEVAN

LONDON, MAY 20—Britain's bad boy is Aneurin Bevan, an evangelical, primitive Socialist who goes his own way, shattering before him whatever does not fit his concept of life. He is now engaged in splitting his own Labour Party which, if it is defeated in this election, could fall apart into three sections, Bevan leading one of them. It is possible both to underestimate and overestimate this man; the significance of his political activity is that he cannot be ignored. The Labour Party stands for managerial Socialism which is more like the New Deal in the United States. They would have government controls over the life of the people and government ownership of those phases of the British economy which are monopolistic or tend to become monopolistic. But they are not ideological Marxists, coming closer to a Norman Thomas Socialist than to a Communist.

The most important economic problem in this country is raising the standard of living of the people. Wages are comparatively low. The average annual income of a typical male clerk or a female stenographer would be about 400 pounds which is about 1150 dollars; the average female industrial worker about 300 pounds or 750 dollars; the average male industrial worker under 21 about 250 pounds or about 600 dollars. This provides a picture of income and purchasing power. Instalment buying is not highly developed and is not encouraged because the fear of inflation is very great.

The Labour Party wants wages increased and the standard of living raised by government controls and by what they regard as scientific methods; the Conservatives believe in competition and creating demands for more products by prosperity which depends to a great degree upon an export trade. The Conservatives are impressed by American methods of creating mass consumers and mass production industries. The Labourites, who are Socialists, have many reservations about American methods. Both parties wonder what mass production and particularly automation can do to social conditions in a comparatively small country. Aneurin Bevan runs across this discussion with early twentieth century arguments of the Kier Hardie type which no longer fit the conditions of these times. But that makes little difference because his emotionalism, his oratory, his stimulation of discontent give him an important following despite full employment and a rising wage scale.

It is to be noted that no improvements affect those who live on old age pensions, who have become the new poor. As long as full employment exists, Bevan's arguments arouse interest but do not give him prime leadership. As a matter of fact, the opposition to him is strongest in the trade unions. But it is admitted on all sides that if the economy suffered a setback, if conditions inside or outside affected Great Britain, so that unemployment returned, there is no telling what Bevan could accomplish politically. He might reach leadership in the Labour Party and even become Prime Minister. Bevan is anti-American although it is not clear whether that is a political manoeuvre like a mayor of Chicago threatening to punch King George's nose to get votes, or is a support of Soviet Russia which Bevan does not openly support.

Even his enemies deny that Bevan is a Communist, although they are not able to describe exactly what he is because his ideas do not fit a pattern. They only know that he makes trouble for everybody and revels in it. When the Labour Party tried to expel him, they came up against sufficient resistance to take him back, and he is now out campaigning under Labour Party auspices, although he says all the things that they do not want him to say in this campaign. He seems to be Henry Wallace, Wayne Morse and Harold Ickes all rolled in one and nobody can handle him. It is not only a matter of ego: it is political manoeuvring to become Prime Minister some day. Here any man who has reached the political level that he is considered as a possible Prime Minister, takes on a greater political significance than a possible Presidential candidate does in the United States. That is due to the parliamentary system which gives past, present and potential Prime Ministers a forum. Lloyd George killed the Liberal Party on the anvil of his ambitions: it is feared by Labourites that Aneurin Bevin may do the same to the Labour Party.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

THE PARALYZED NIGHT NURSE

A condition about which we very seldom read or even hear, and yet, which is extremely common, is temporary paralysis, known to attack a very large number of night nurses, both male and female. The classical description is that of a nurse on night duty, while sitting in a chair, sees a head nurse approach and finds herself completely unable to rise to greet her. The paralysis extends to all the limb muscles and even the muscles of the face; it passes off within a short period and leaves no ill effects. In some cases, it is accompanied by a buzzing in the ears and a sensation of being cut off from humanity. It is not related to sleep and may affect persons during the day.

Practically the only medical man who has interested himself in this condition is the Bristol psychiatrist, Dr. G. De M. Rudolf, who in 1946 stated that he had found nothing on it in medical literature although he has since established the fact that one-third of a group of male and female nurses hod suffered from this paralysis and that it had occurred in places as far apart as Montreal and India. He has described it as a harmless temporary immovability and points out that it is by no means confined to nurses, and that partial attacks may occur in which only a few muscles are affected.

This has led to some interesting speculation as to whether this condition is related to a familiar one among aviators, which comes under the name of "fascination"—defined as a condition in which the pilot fails to respond properly under certain conditions. Although he knows just what is happening and just what he should do, he somehow just fails to take the proper action. It is further thought that this happens to automobile drivers as well and would certainly explain many accidents. It is possible that this has even happened to ourselves. Have we not sometimes said, "I knew what I should do perfectly well but I just sat there and did nothing and I don't know why."

At one naval air station in the United States, it is recorded that as high as 92 per cent of the advanced students had experienced this highly dangerous state. One instructor felt that this type of behavior was the result of a mental block. "They got stuck," he said. To what extent fear and anxiety play a part in this paralysis, which has a strong resemblance to catalepsy, or being in a trance, is unknown. It would seem as if there is a block of the impulses from the brain to both the nerves and muscles in night nurses' paralysis. In some cases of fascination, the sufferer, though clearly perceiving just what is about to happen, just does not make the correct response even though he may lose his life by failing to do so.

Doubtless there will be more study and research on this interesting yet so dangerous condition in the future. It is extremely difficult to treat a condition until we know the cause.

Washington (NEA) — The 30 U. S. senators who favor federal government construction of a single, high, $388,000,000 public power dam at Hells Canyon on the Snake River between Oregon and Idaho think they have one, last, three months' chance to put it over.

They have been casting fishy eyes on Federal Power Commission Examiner William J. Costello's recent order which would authorize Idaho Power Co. to build a low, $90,000,000 dam at the Brownlee site above Hells Canyon. The company's application to build two other low dams at Oxbow and Hells Canyon—to cost an additional $100,000,000—was denied.

Costello has recommended that opponents of his order be given three months in which to prepare their case before final hearing by the full Federal Power Commission.

There are about three months left in the present session of Congress. If the 30 senators—mostly Democrats led by Oregon Senators Wayne Morse and Richard Neuberger — can put over their high dam bill in this time, they can stop the low dams. Otherwise the public power advocates will have to take their case to court and delay action for a new try after 1956.

TO THEIR SURPRISE AND DISMAY, advocates of the high dam have found that Costello's provisional order contains many arguments in favor of the high dam.

At one point in his 75-page boildown of over 20,000 pages of testimony in hearings that began over two years ago, Costello writes: ". . . the facts seem to point to the inescapable conclusion that with the marked and substantial advantage of the government's credit, the high dam would be dollar for dollar the better investment and the more nearly ideal development of the Middle Snake."

In spite of this, Costello recommended that the one, low, Idaho Power Co. dam be licensed for construction.

He reached this conclusion on the basis of what is being interpreted as a purely political judgment. In brief it is that the Hells Canyon high dam proposal has already been presented to Congress in 1950, 1951 and 1953 and been turned down each time.

IN THE PREVIOUS adiministration, Secretary of Interior Oscar Chapman supported the project, originally put forward by Army Corps of Engineers in 1947. In the present administration, Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay has withdrawn government support.

On the economic aspects of the case, the Costello provisional order reports that for the Idaho Power Co. Brownlee dam, power cost would be 7.6 mills per kilowatt hour.

For the three low dams the power cost would be 6.6 mills per kwh. On these facts Costello comments:

"When one realizes that the Bonneville Power Administration sells large amounts of firm power at about 2.0 mills per kwh., it is difficult to see where in the northwest power will be salable at triple the Bonneville rate."

IT WAS APPARENTLY FOR this reason that Costello disapproved the three-dam plan. He approved only the Brownlee project which will produce power for sale in the Idaho Power Co.'s own territory.

"The really paradoxical aspect of the whole matter," comments Costello, "is that there is a crying need for firm power additions in the northwest, in view of the lagging program of development by the federal government and the steadily growing loads." The high dam would furnish more surplus power to the Bonneville grid.

The big obstacle which the high dam has to overcome is that it is a huge public power project which would require a tremendous outlay of the taxpayers' money. Because of the government's lower interest rates, lower taxes and no need to show a profit, it freezes out private enterprise competition.

British Communists Are in Line to Profit if Labor Party Is Defeated

By DAVID LAWRENCE

London, May 24—The Communist strategy in the British election campaign may prove of far more importance in the long run than the outcome of the elections themselves. For the Communists are waiting to pick up the pieces if the Socialist Labor party is defeated, as seems likely.

Outwardly the Communist party is running candidates in only seventeen districts out of 630. In most of the other districts, they have given instructions openly to their followers to support the Socialist Labor party candidates. The underground tactics, however, in several districts are to support the Conservatives. The object of course, is to bring about a Conservative victory but by the narrowest of margins possible. Curiously enough, the Liberals—or third party—have put new life into their campaign and are running more than 100 candidates. This may cut down some of the majority of the Conservatives because in a three-cornered race, the Conservatives stand to lose some votes to the Liberals.

Thus, the middle-of-the-road approach has been given impetus with the cry that the Socialist Labor party and the Conservative party each represent extremes and that the best way is to vote "Liberal" so as "to tame the Tories (Conservatives)" by holding down their Parliamentary majority.

Very little is being said in the campaign about the Communist tactics, though it is conceded that the moment the election is over a big battle will start inside the Socialist Labor party between the so-called "Right Wing" and "Left-Wing" factions. The latter is headed up by Aneurin Bevan, who has been slamming away without restraint at the Conservatives. In one speech he likened them to "swine." In another speech he said that Christianity and conservatism are inconsistent, whereupon the Conservatives struck back with the cry that he had called a lot of respectable Britishers "heathens."

If the Labor party loses, the Bevanites will claim that the Attlee, Morrison and Gaitskell leadership has been discredited and that more aggressive policies are needed—such as more instead of less nationalization and more opposition to American policies in the world, plus the prohibition of the use of the hydrogen bomb by Britain and her allies. This will be meat for the Communists, of course, whose main objective seems to be to promote and intensify discord and disunity all along the line.

Something of the nature of the Communist intrigue can be derived from a story being told about the British newspaper strike which ran twenty-six days. Although it was initiated by two small unions of mechanical employes, one dominated by Communist officers, the other unions did not dare to go to work independently. Finally, in a sensational conference between one of the leaders of the strike and Sir Walter Monckton, Minister of Labor in the Conservative government, the union spokesman, who was a Communist, admitted that the purpose of the strike was to promote as much trouble as possible for the nation. When Sir Walter threatened to tell the House of Commons the full story, the labor leader agreed to terms.

It is significant that Sir Hartley Shawcross, attorney-general in the last Socialist Labor government, in a campaign speech a few days ago about the wave of unofficial strikes and jurisdictional disputes said that many were "inspired by Communists." Then he declared that "in the nature of things, it is easier for a Labor government to handle this sort of situation, in close consultation with the Trade Union Congress and to ensure better discipline and loyalty to negotiated agreements, than the Tories (Conservatives)."

The spectacle of a Right-Wing member of the Socialist Labor party telling his constituents that his party can handle the Communists better than the Conservatives brings smiles to the Communists, who hope to produce more strife by keeping the large number of union members in a constant battle with other unions, especially over jurisdictional matters. Thus, the moderate non-Communist union leaders are caught in the middle. They find their greatest obstacle is the lack of interest among the rank and file who fail to attend local meetings and hence permit he Communists to rig all sorts of maneuvers with which the majority do not really agree.

The Conservatives have been trying to avoid getting into a campaign argument about the current strikes which threaten both the docks and the railroads. The Labor party speakers nevertheless are whispering that the Conservatives are preparing legislation to restrict the right to strike. One veteran union leader, Sir Will Lawther, former head of the coal miners, remarked that the recent wildcat strikes have done the Socialist Labor party's chances of winning this election more harm than anything the Conservatives could do.

There are rumors that, if the Conservatives get a comfortable majority, they will be inclined to put some curbs on Communist activities in Britain. For here is a democracy which doesn't see many persons openly aligned with the Communist party but suffers grievously nevertheless as a result of the mischief promoted by an underground force directed from Moscow.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, MAY 25, 1955

PRECISION

Those who like neatness and rounded corners in the world's and their personal affairs must marvel at the quirk of history which marked May 5, 1955, as the date for the official ending of the Allied occupation of West Germany.

For May 5, 1954, exactly a decade ago, may be viewed as the last previous date during all of which the Germans still clung to legal sway over their shattered domain.

By late the next day, May 6, members of the German high command were seated around a table at General Eisenhower's headquarters in Reims, France, setting in motion their country's unconditional surrender.

Now the Germans have their independence once more, along with membership in the Allies' new defense family, NATO, and the authority to rearm.

Free men must pray they will use well their regained privileges and new opportunities. It is time German strength was employed for mankind, not against it.

NO BUST IN HOUSE BOOM

Home builders report that some time in August the ten millionth house since World War II will be erected. Since 1950 the number of new houses built has exceeded the number of new households formed.

The combination of these facts, added to the realization that any large cut in housing construction would seriously affect the nation's economy, has caused some alarm among those who fear the threat of overbuilding. The results of surveys conducted by the Federal Housing Administration and the Veterans Administration, however, indicate no existing housing surplus and there is no surplus pending on the local markets.

Housing needs piled up between the years 1930 and 1949 when home building lagged far behind the market demands. That deficit has been met, but a trend to the suburbs has created the need for more houses and housing settlements. Increased personal incomes have encouraged the building of the second and newer home. In addition, families are growing larger. It seems to parents that apartments are growing smaller and apartment congestion makes a new house almost a necessity. High apartment rents, too, have acted as a good argument for putting the rent money into one's own home.

With the housing supply and demand becoming more stabilized, financing may become tighter. Otherwise, home builders assure the nation, there is no cause for alarm.

BID FOR TITO

The Kremlin is making a determined effort to win Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia back to the fold. This month several top Russian leaders will visit Yugoslavia. The initiative for the visit was taken in Moscow.

Should Tito be won by the blandishments of the Russians it might have serious consequences for the West. Although Yugoslavia is officially a neutral state it has certain economic and military ties with the West and is abiding by the agreement not to ship strategic materials to Russsia.

When Tito broke with the Kremlin few expected that he would survive. He was denounced by the Communist Party, in every country except his own, as a vile traitor and a tool of the West. Despite this he increased his hold on the government, entered into negotiations with the West and enjoys an independence and security today that would have been impossible had he remained under the Russian thumb.

Tito is a Marxist. He is in complete disagreement with the politics of the West. It is to be hoped, however, that he will see, as he has in the past, that the best hope for his country's progress and independence does not lie in an alliance with the Russians. Should he not see that, it is possible that in time he will suffer the lot of all Communists who dared to defy the high priests of communism who hand down their edicts from the Kremlin.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

ANEURIN BEVAN

LONDON, MAY 20—Britain's bad boy is Aneurin Bevan, an evangelical, primitive Socialist who goes his own way, shattering before him whatever does not fit his concept of life. He is now engaged in splitting his own Labour Party which, if it is defeated in this election, could fall apart into three sections, Bevan leading one of them. It is possible both to underestimate and overestimate this man; the significance of his political activity is that he cannot be ignored. The Labour Party stands for managerial Socialism which is more like the New Deal in the United States. They would have government controls over the life of the people and government ownership of those phases of the British economy which are monopolistic or tend to become monopolistic. But they are not ideological Marxists, coming closer to a Norman Thomas Socialist than to a Communist.

The most important economic problem in this country is raising the standard of living of the people. Wages are comparatively low. The average annual income of a typical male clerk or a female stenographer would be about 400 pounds which is about 1150 dollars; the average female industrial worker about 300 pounds or 750 dollars; the average male industrial worker under 21 about 250 pounds or about 600 dollars. This provides a picture of income and purchasing power. Instalment buying is not highly developed and is not encouraged because the fear of inflation is very great.

The Labour Party wants wages increased and the standard of living raised by government controls and by what they regard as scientific methods; the Conservatives believe in competition and creating demands for more products by prosperity which depends to a great degree upon an export trade. The Conservatives are impressed by American methods of creating mass consumers and mass production industries. The Labourites, who are Socialists, have many reservations about American methods. Both parties wonder what mass production and particularly automation can do to social conditions in a comparatively small country. Aneurin Bevan runs across this discussion with early twentieth century arguments of the Kier Hardie type which no longer fit the conditions of these times. But that makes little difference because his emotionalism, his oratory, his stimulation of discontent give him an important following despite full employment and a rising wage scale.

It is to be noted that no improvements affect those who live on old age pensions, who have become the new poor. As long as full employment exists, Bevan's arguments arouse interest but do not give him prime leadership. As a matter of fact, the opposition to him is strongest in the trade unions. But it is admitted on all sides that if the economy suffered a setback, if conditions inside or outside affected Great Britain, so that unemployment returned, there is no telling what Bevan could accomplish politically. He might reach leadership in the Labour Party and even become Prime Minister. Bevan is anti-American although it is not clear whether that is a political manoeuvre like a mayor of Chicago threatening to punch King George's nose to get votes, or is a support of Soviet Russia which Bevan does not openly support.

Even his enemies deny that Bevan is a Communist, although they are not able to describe exactly what he is because his ideas do not fit a pattern. They only know that he makes trouble for everybody and revels in it. When the Labour Party tried to expel him, they came up against sufficient resistance to take him back, and he is now out campaigning under Labour Party auspices, although he says all the things that they do not want him to say in this campaign. He seems to be Henry Wallace, Wayne Morse and Harold Ickes all rolled in one and nobody can handle him. It is not only a matter of ego: it is political manoeuvring to become Prime Minister some day. Here any man who has reached the political level that he is considered as a possible Prime Minister, takes on a greater political significance than a possible Presidential candidate does in the United States. That is due to the parliamentary system which gives past, present and potential Prime Ministers a forum. Lloyd George killed the Liberal Party on the anvil of his ambitions: it is feared by Labourites that Aneurin Bevin may do the same to the Labour Party.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

THE PARALYZED NIGHT NURSE

A condition about which we very seldom read or even hear, and yet, which is extremely common, is temporary paralysis, known to attack a very large number of night nurses, both male and female. The classical description is that of a nurse on night duty, while sitting in a chair, sees a head nurse approach and finds herself completely unable to rise to greet her. The paralysis extends to all the limb muscles and even the muscles of the face; it passes off within a short period and leaves no ill effects. In some cases, it is accompanied by a buzzing in the ears and a sensation of being cut off from humanity. It is not related to sleep and may affect persons during the day.

Practically the only medical man who has interested himself in this condition is the Bristol psychiatrist, Dr. G. De M. Rudolf, who in 1946 stated that he had found nothing on it in medical literature although he has since established the fact that one-third of a group of male and female nurses hod suffered from this paralysis and that it had occurred in places as far apart as Montreal and India. He has described it as a harmless temporary immovability and points out that it is by no means confined to nurses, and that partial attacks may occur in which only a few muscles are affected.

This has led to some interesting speculation as to whether this condition is related to a familiar one among aviators, which comes under the name of "fascination"—defined as a condition in which the pilot fails to respond properly under certain conditions. Although he knows just what is happening and just what he should do, he somehow just fails to take the proper action. It is further thought that this happens to automobile drivers as well and would certainly explain many accidents. It is possible that this has even happened to ourselves. Have we not sometimes said, "I knew what I should do perfectly well but I just sat there and did nothing and I don't know why."

British Communists Are in Line to Profit if Labor Party Is Defeated

By DAVID LAWRENCE

London, May 24—The Communist strategy in the British election campaign may prove of far more importance in the long run than the outcome of the elections themselves. For the Communists are waiting to pick up the pieces if the Socialist Labor party is defeated, as seems likely.

Outwardly the Communist party is running candidates in only seventeen districts out of 630. In most of the other districts, they have given instructions openly to their followers to support the Socialist Labor party candidates. The underground tactics, however, in several districts are to support the Conservatives. The object of course, is to bring about a Conservative victory but by the narrowest of margins possible. Curiously enough, the Liberals—or third party—have put new life into their campaign and are running more than 100 candidates. This may cut down some of the majority of the Conservatives because in a three-cornered race, the Conservatives stand to lose some votes to the Liberals.

Thus, the middle-of-the-road approach has been given impetus with the cry that the Socialist Labor party and the Conservative party each represent extremes and that the best way is to vote "Liberal" so as "to tame the Tories (Conservatives)" by holding down their Parliamentary majority.

Very little is being said in the campaign about the Communist tactics, though it is conceded that the moment the election is over a big battle will start inside the Socialist Labor party between the so-called "Right Wing" and "Left-Wing" factions. The latter is headed up by Aneurin Bevan, who has been slamming away without restraint at the Conservatives. In one speech he likened them to "swine." In another speech he said that Christianity and conservatism are inconsistent, whereupon the Conservatives struck back with the cry that he had called a lot of respectable Britishers "heathens."

If the Labor party loses, the Bevanites will claim that the Attlee, Morrison and Gaitskell leadership has been discredited and that more aggressive policies are needed—such as more instead of less nationalization and more opposition to American policies in the world, plus the prohibition of the use of the hydrogen bomb by Britain and her allies. This will be meat for the Communists, of course, whose main objective seems to be to promote and intensify discord and disunity all along the line.

Something of the nature of the Communist intrigue can be derived from a story being told about the British newspaper strike which ran twenty-six days. Although it was initiated by two small unions of mechanical employes, one dominated by Communist officers, the other unions did not dare to go to work independently. Finally, in a sensational conference between one of the leaders of the strike and Sir Walter Monckton, Minister of Labor in the Conservative government, the union spokesman, who was a Communist, admitted that the purpose of the strike was to promote as much trouble as possible for the nation. When Sir Walter threatened to tell the House of Commons the full story, the labor leader agreed to terms.

It is significant that Sir Hartley Shawcross, attorney-general in the last Socialist Labor government, in a campaign speech a few days ago about the wave of unofficial strikes and jurisdictional disputes said that many were "inspired by Communists." Then he declared that "in the nature of things, it is easier for a Labor government to handle this sort of situation, in close consultation with the Trade Union Congress and to ensure better discipline and loyalty to negotiated agreements, than the Tories (Conservatives)."

The spectacle of a Right-Wing member of the Socialist Labor party telling his constituents that his party can handle the Communists better than the Conservatives brings smiles to the Communists, who hope to produce more strife by keeping the large number of union members in a constant battle with other unions, especially over jurisdictional matters. Thus, the moderate non-Communist union leaders are caught in the middle. They find their greatest obstacle is the lack of interest among the rank and file who fail to attend local meetings and hence permit he Communists to rig all sorts of maneuvers with which the majority do not really agree.

The Conservatives have been trying to avoid getting into a campaign argument about the current strikes which threaten both the docks and the railroads. The Labor party speakers nevertheless are whispering that the Conservatives are preparing legislation to restrict the right to strike. One veteran union leader, Sir Will Lawther, former head of the coal miners, remarked that the recent wildcat strikes have done the Socialist Labor party's chances of winning this election more harm than anything the Conservatives could do.

There are rumors that, if the Conservatives get a comfortable majority, they will be inclined to put some curbs on Communist activities in Britain. For here is a democracy which doesn't see many persons openly aligned with the Communist party but suffers grievously nevertheless as a result of the mischief promoted by an underground force directed from Moscow.

Social Security Law Provisions

George J. Johnson, district manager of the Kingston Social Security Office, submits another article on the Social Security Law:

There is a provision in the new social security law which resembles, in some ways, the drop-out of low or no earning years which I explained in a recent article in this series. This is the provision known as the "disability freeze." It should not be confused with the drop-out. But it does act to discount no-earning years from the worker's average monthly wages. And like the dropout, it is something entirely new to social security. So I'd like to explain a little about the disability freeze in this article.

THE SOCIAL .security .disability "freeze" may be roughly compared to the "waiver of premium" which is offered to individuals who purchase ordinary life insurance. A waiver of premium is used to maintain the protection of the private insurance policy for the duration of the policy holder's disability. The social security disability provision will freeze the years during which a disability has kept the worker from earning so that those years of disability will not affect the disabled worker's social security account.

I should like to mention one fact about the disability provisions which may be misunderstood at first. The disability "freeze" is not disability insurance. A person must be disabled to apply for the "freeze," but he can not receive social security benefits until he retires at the age 65 or later. Then he will find that he will not receive reduced benefit amounts because his wage record has been frozen during the years in which he was unable to perform any gainful work.

Before the 1954 disability provision in the social security law, the worker, who became disabled after a long record of contributions to the labor force of the nation, may have lost his insured status. This would have been possible under the old law because the entire period of his disability was included in the time which was the basis for determining his insured status. Or if the disabled individual didn't lose his insured status, the period of his total disability during which he was earning no wages would greatly reduce his average monthly wage. And it is upon the average monthly wage that the benefit amount is computed.

THE 1954 AMENDMENT with the special disability freeze was designed to correct the cut in benefits and the loss of insured status. It is a provision for those who have a long and recent record of attachment to the nation's labor force. For this reason there is a requirement that the disabled person must have worked under social security for at least five years. These five years must have been during the ten years right before the disability began. And one and a half of the five years must have been during the three right before the disability began.

Any worker who, after meeting the qualifications just described becomes totally disabled by illness, injury, or other physical or mental impairment which is expected to be of long and indefinite duration, which is medically determined, and which has lasted for at least six months is eligible for the disability freeze. This means that his wage record for the period of his disability will be frozen and not counted against him in figuring his insured status, and the amount of his future benefits.

THE DISABILITY freeze will not be applied in figuring benefits which are paid to survivors of disabled workers who died before July 1, 1955. If a worker is declared disabled, July 1955, is the first month in which he can be paid a retirement benefit computed with the exclusion of the period of disability. And when a worker reaches age 65, his period of disability will be considered ended. If the disabled person applies for the disbility freeze before July, 1957, his wages will be frozen for a disability as far back as September 1941, if he is still disabled at the time of application and if he meets the work requirements. After July 1957, the disability freeze will apply to wages going back only as far as a year but lasting for the entire duration of the disability.

The doctor, stationed at St. Luke's Hospital, lost his wallet containing cards, licenses, visas and additional important papers plus $25 in cash. A bulky envelope containing the wallet with cards but without money was returned, arrived in the mail some time after the loss. It carried 18 cents postage but the doctor had to pay an additional three cents postage due.

Buffalo, May 25 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) headed for Niagara Falls to day to hammer at his charge that the Eisenhower administration has done nothing to release "481 Americans" being held captive by the Chinese Reds. McCarthy told the Buffalo Advertising Club yesterday that a meeting he had had with "high State Department officials" had "exploded the idea" that only a few Americans were held by the Chinese. "The number of men held in Chinese prison camps is not 11 or 15, but 481 uniformed men and 20 civilians," the senator declared.

YMCA Day Camp Opens on June 27

Plans already are underway for the 13th annual YMCA Day Camp at DeWitt Lake which is scheduled to open Monday, June 27, Lou Schafer, camp director, said this morning.

A special clean-up day program is set for Saturday, June 4, when Mr. Schafer and William Irland, day camp assistant, will meet at the camp area with the 1955 junior and senior assistants.

THE MORNING session will be devoted to clean-up with luncheon at noon. The afternoon session will be for the assistants and directors in planning the 1955 program. Swimming and the final test in life saving will be the final session of the day.

Mr. Schafer pointed out today that all camp assistants are qualified life guards, having been taught at the Day Camp or in the YMCA swimming pool. "In fact," he added, "all assistants, whether juniors or seniors, have been campers for at least three or four years. Two have had five years, one eight years and the first assistant in the lower camp will be attending her 13th year at the summer camp.

Applications for this year's camp already are being received and indications are that another record attendance will mark the activities. Camp applications and literature may be obtained at the local YMCA Headquarters.

Beavers bear litters of two to six once a year, late in the spring.

Says Demand for Oil To Double in 20 Years

Linden, N. J., May 25 — The head of the world's biggest oil company said today that demand for oil will double in the next 20 years, despite competition from the atom.

In a talk prepared for the annual meeting of Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) stockholders, Eugene Holman, chairman and chief executive officer, declared: "The atom undoubtedly will contribute importantly to the world's overall energy pattern. But we believe oil will provide the largest share of energy growth for at least the next 20 years."

Holman said company forecasts indicate that "even 20 years from now, the atom will still account for only a small part of the greatly expanded amount of total energy consumed." And by 1975, he added, "the free world probably will be using double the amount of oil products that it does today."

tration's program for allocating funds to states for free vaccine. She said each state would work out its own program for administering the funds and that there would be no requirement for matching money from the states.

SHE SAID the formula for dividing the 28 million dollars among the states and territories would give a higher relative portion to low income states.

Mrs. Hobby said that of the 13,350,000 children for whom free vaccine would be supplied, about 11½ milion would receive all of the recommended three shots of the Salk polio vaccine.

The remainder would be first and second grade children receiving their third injection. These children will already have received their first two shots under the free vaccination program now being carried on by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

New Postal . . .

tion which he termed unfair and difficult to administer.

In all the bills, the pay increases would be retroactive to last March 1.

The Senate Post Office committee moved toward immediate consideration, but there was a chance of delay in the House. Murray, chairman of the House Committee, told newsmen he would hold hearings soon, but that "maybe we had better have a little cooling off period first." He said the length of the hearings would depend on the amount of opposition registered by organized postal employes.

"IF THERE IS no opposition, a bill can be reported out much more speedily," he declared.

Rees, a senior GOP member of Murray's committee, called the substitute "the only practical solution to giving postal employes a salary increase," and he added: "If postal employes will not oppose this legislation, I feel sure that it can become law within a few days."

Whatever size raise is finally agreed upon for the postal workers is likely to go also to the million federal Civil Service workers in a later bill.

Hits U. S. Stand

Buffalo, May 25 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) headed for Niagara Falls to day to hammer at his charge that the Eisenhower administration has done nothing to release "481 Americans" being held captive by the Chinese Reds. McCarthy told the Buffalo Advertising Club yesterday that a meeting he had had with "high State Department officials" had "exploded the idea" that only a few Americans were held by the Chinese. "The number of men held in Chinese prison camps is not 11 or 15, but 481 uniformed men and 20 civilians," the senator declared.

YMCA Day Camp Opens on June 27

Plans already are underway for the 13th annual YMCA Day Camp at DeWitt Lake which is scheduled to open Monday, June 27, Lou Schafer, camp director, said this morning.

A special clean-up day program is set for Saturday, June 4, when Mr. Schafer and William Irland, day camp assistant, will meet at the camp area with the 1955 junior and senior assistants.

THE MORNING session will be devoted to clean-up with luncheon at noon. The afternoon session will be for the assistants and directors in planning the 1955 program. Swimming and the final test in life saving will be the final session of the day.

Mr. Schafer pointed out today that all camp assistants are qualified life guards, having been taught at the Day Camp or in the YMCA swimming pool. "In fact," he added, "all assistants, whether juniors or seniors, have been campers for at least three or four years. Two have had five years, one eight years and the first assistant in the lower camp will be attending her 13th year at the summer camp.

Applications for this year's camp already are being received and indications are that another record attendance will mark the activities. Camp applications and literature may be obtained at the local YMCA Headquarters.

Beavers bear litters of two to six once a year, late in the spring.

Says Demand for Oil To Double in 20 Years

Linden, N. J., May 25 — The head of the world's biggest oil company said today that demand for oil will double in the next 20 years, despite competition from the atom.

In a talk prepared for the annual meeting of Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) stockholders, Eugene Holman, chairman and chief executive officer, declared:

"The atom undoubtedly will contribute importantly to the world's overall energy pattern. But we believe oil will provide the largest share of energy growth for at least the next 20 years."

Holman said company forecasts indicate that "even 20 years from now, the atom will still account for only a small part of the greatly expanded amount of total energy consumed." And by 1975, he added, "the free world probably will be using double the amount of oil products that it does today."

tration's program for allocating funds to states for free vaccine. She said each state would work out its own program for administering the funds and that there would be no requirement for matching money from the states.

SHE SAID the formula for dividing the 28 million dollars among the states and territories would give a higher relative portion to low income states.

Mrs. Hobby said that of the 13,350,000 children for whom free vaccine would be supplied, about 11½ milion would receive all of the recommended three shots of the Salk polio vaccine.

The remainder would be first and second grade children receiving their third injection. These children will already have received their first two shots under the free vaccination program now being carried on by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

In all the bills, the pay increases would be retroactive to last March 1.

The Senate Post Office committee moved toward immediate consideration, but there was a chance of delay in the House. Murray, chairman of the House Committee, told newsmen he would hold hearings soon, but that "maybe we had better have a little cooling off period first." He said the length of the hearings would depend on the amount of opposition registered by organized postal employes.

"IF THERE IS no opposition, a bill can be reported out much more speedily," he declared.

Rees, a senior GOP member of Murray's committee, called the substitute "the only practical solution to giving postal employes a salary increase," and he added: "If postal employes will not oppose this legislation, I feel sure that it can become law within a few days."

Whatever size raise is finally agreed upon for the postal workers is likely to go also to the million federal Civil Service workers in a later bill.

Wages, Prices, Growth Worry Top Steel Men

New York, May 25 (AP)—Top men of the nation's booming steel industry are in New York today with three immediate worries on their minds: Wages, prices, expansion.

They have gathered for the annual meeting of the American Iron & Steel Institute. Formal discussions will be on the technical problems and accomplishments of the industry. There'll be assessments of the present boom and its probably life expectancy.

But in the corridors the earnest talk will be what to do about wages, prices and expansion. What the steel industry does about those three things could help set a national pattern.

WAGE TALKS with the Steelworkers Union open in a couple of weeks in Pittsburgh. Rumor has it that the union will ask for a wage increase of more than 16 cents an hour. Steel executives here for the meeting will have a chance to compare ideas on how much management should offer. Some believe that when negotiations are over the settlement will be around 12 cents an hour.

Steel wage talks start after the auto industry's deadline has passed. What happens in Detroit will have a strong effect on the steel talks.

A STRIKE in the auto industry would cut off the steel mills' best customer. Or, a liberal wage increase there as a compromise on the auto union's other demands would be a strong talking point for the steelworkers in bargaining with steel management.

The guaranteed annual wage —chief bone of contention in Detroit—won't come up in the steel industry until next year.

A steel price hike is just as pressing a topic today. Leaders in the industry have said a price increase is necessary, no matter what the outcome of the wage talks next month. They cite rising operatings costs.

THEIR CUSTOMERS, noting the record or near-record earnings that some steel companies reported in the first three months of the year, will hope that the price hike can be held to a small one.

Steel executives in New York today will have a chance to compare views on how big a price hike to plan and how effective customer resistance might be.

The question of expansion grows out of the unexpected size of the industry's boom.

THE DEFENSE program, born of the Korean War, inspired the steel industry to build up facilities to a point where 15 per cent could be marked as reserve for military use if need arose. With military demand now below its former peak, civilian demand has picked up unexpectedly to the point where the industry as a whole is operating at almost full capacity. Some companies are parcelling out certain steel products to their customers. The reserve capacity has disappeared, for the time at least.

Top steel companies have said another round of expansion must be planned. In their talks today steelmen can try to judge how much more the civilian economy is likely to grow and how much more steel it will be likely to demand in the years ahead.

WAGES, PRICES and expansion may be the steelmen's present headaches. But they come at a time of unprecedented prosperity for the industry.

Their institute estimates that production this week will run just a mite under the record tonnage of 2,345,000 turned out in the week of May 9.

The steelmen, if they compare notes on their advance order books, will find that most of these are well filled through the third quarter. And prospects for the rest of the year are bright.

TV Classes Predicted

Detroit (AP)—The University of Detroit's president says closed-circuit television may offer a solution to skyrocketing college enrollments and a shortage of teacher. "As realists," says the Rev. Celestin J. Steiner, S.J., "we must be convinced that we will never be able to cope with the challenge of swelling enrollments ahead if we adhere to present conventional teaching methods. There simply won't be enough competent teachers."

It is possible to lose consciousness in a severe fit of coughing.

Painted Dog

Pottstown, Pa. (AP)—People thought they were seeing things when a dog colored a strange shade of yellow sauntered down the street. He had been present during fruit tree spraying in a nearby orchard. Workmen said the mixture of copper sulfate clings for days.

CP Campaign Is Announced for Route 28-A Areas

Jay Molyneaux, Town of Hurley chairman for United Cerebral Palsy, announces that the Ladies' Auxiliary of the West Hurley Fire Department soon will hold a house-to-house canvass in West Hurley, Glenford and Route 28A areas. Mrs. Maria Soszka, auxiliary president, also announces that plans are being made for a dance or card party benefit for Cerebral Palsy, details of which will be announced later.

Chairman Molyneaux announces the following workers: Mmes. Elizabeth Hogan, Anne Witter, Elsie Hoffman, Elsie Dorvaux, Stella Dorvaux, Nettie Every, Anna McAuliffe, Dorothy Ryan, Hanna Schroeder, Lillian TeBolt, Betsy Saxe, Anna Doll, Loretta McNally, Anne Fochi, Frances McNally, Nancy Molyneaux.

The Misses Patricia Hogan, Kathryn McAuliffe, Ann McAuliffe, Elaine McMahon, Jenny Hanna, and Mmes. Baby Dies in Mishap

Albany, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—A two-week-old boy suffered fatal skull fractures yesterday while his mother slept. Police said a brother and sister, aged 3 and 2, apparently had dropped the child while imitating the mother's care. Mrs. Beulah Terry, 25, said she found Louis, the infant, lying on the kitchen floor of her three-room basement apartment yesterday morning after Richard, 3, awoke her. Louis died at Albany Hospital. He also had suffered facial cuts. Police said Richard and Theresa, 2, removed Louis from a bassinet. They indicated, police said, that they had sprinkled Louis with baby powder, copying their mother. Powder was found on his nose and ears.

GOP Chairman Hits Harriman on ExtraTaxDemand

Albany, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—The Republican state chairman contends that Gov. Harriman is "trigger-happy in calling for tax increases" to raise teachers' salaries.

L. Judson Morhouse declared yesterday that everyone agreed teachers must be paid adequately. But he suggested that additional state aid to schools might be financed within the existing tax structure.

In a statement, Morhouse said:

"THE PEOPLE of this state, who agree that school teachers are entitled to higher minimum salaries, wish that Gov. Harriman were not so trigger-happy in calling for tax increases, practically every time he turns around. . . .

"For instance, his recent 11 per cent increase in the personal income tax and the tremendous additional revenues that will accrue next year, under all existing tax rates, because of the great expansion of prosperity, well might provide considerable funds for financing teachers' pay raises without further tax increases."

HARRIMAN told a teacher recognition day meeting Monday that he would seek "additional revenues on a statewide basis to see that teachers get proper pay and that we have proper facilities for our school children."

Harriman said both state and local taxes should be increased to achieve his objectives. But he did not specify the taxes he thought should be increased or when he would make his move.

Next year is a presidential election year.

MORHOUSE noted that the temporary state commission on educational finance is scheduled to report in December.

"Everyone regrets Mr. Harriman's impetuous call for tax increases before searching studies of the means of financing teacher pay raises have been completed," he said.

The problem should not be "the subject for irresponsible, off-the-cuff 'scare talk' by any public official who says he is playing games with editors," Morhouse asserted.

Harriman had said Monday that he would "keep a record" of newspapers that published editorials recommending teacher-pay raises and compare the list with editorial reaction to his tax-increase proposal.

Legion Auxiliary To Sell Poppies Starting May 26

The annual American Legion Auxiliary Poppy Day sale will be conducted May 26, 27 and 28 under the sponsorship of Kingston Unit 150, Mrs. Jeannie Bittner, Jr., local president, said today.

The purpose of the sale is to assist the welfare of disabled veterans, their families and families of the dead.

VOLUNTEERS of the American Legion Auxiliary will distribute the flowers throughout the three-day sale in Kingston.

Again this year, poppies for the sale have been handmade by disabled veterans working in hospitals and convalescent workshops throughout the country.

The disabled men take special pride in making flowers, Mrs. Bittner pointed out, to honor their fallen comrades and the work is valuable to them as an occupational therapy, besides bringing them much needed earnings.

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

The other day Mrs. John Glennon stopped in to ask if she could borrow the model of the Skillyput which my late father made back in 1921. I told her that it was in the Senate House Museum under glass and lock and key. My father never knew that his little model which graced his store windows for 30 years would someday be in our local museum. He was a very modest man, and I do not think he ever made a speech in his life or was on the board of directors of any organization. Just the same I am so proud that he is remembered for the little things he did, like making that little model. I remember young parents with their very young children used to come to our window and look over the Skillyput model also the Clermont and the Rondout Bridge models. The parents themselves sometimes only remembered it from their extreme youth and of course their youngsters only knew the Skillyput through my father's model. I have often heard them exclaim, "Yes, that's the little ferry that ran between Rondout and Sleightsburg, where the kids go swimming off the dock."

Everyone plans to be remembered long after he is gone either through their children or through various other ways like monuments in cemeteries and perhaps donations for various causes to go on. Of course there are some who just live from day to day meeting their obligations of everyday life, and doing whatever good they can for others in their small way, never expecting or thinking that it's those little things that will carry their memory long after they are gone. I like to write about folks like that. There was John Sottile and old Mr. Dean who planted rose bushes. There was my father who made little models and often displayed them in the window for the young fry rather than filling his windows with sales which would bring him a profit. There was Harry Staples, the truant officer for many years, who saw to it that youngsters who were in need of shoes got them, especially in the winter time. In Mr. Staples' name I thought of the Staples Shoe Fund, which Mr. Harry Edson of the Recreation Department, a friend of his, continues to run. Of course Mr. Staples never knew about it, for I thought of it soon after his death as a suitable memorial to a man who understood the young ones and their needs.

My father's birthday used to fall right about on Father's Day, June 17. That is why when Mrs. Glennon asked for the loan of the Skillyput model for the "Y" exhibit around this time I thought, "How nice, here four years have passed since my father died and he is still remembered for the little things he did." Since a little girl I remembered that my father used to draw pictures that is why he always wanted me to draw. He did not draw scenery but people. He often caught resemblances of folks who stood on the corner and waited for the bus or customers and now when I look through some of his papers I find these sketches and recognize many of the people. Sometimes he just drew tiny comic sketches of folks walking or driving a car. One sketch he made was of Abe Bahl, the late grocer and fruit dealer, with truck and all. The family I think took one of the colored sketches but I have seen one of the pencil sketches around his sketch books.

Two Types

Roanoke, Va. (AP)—Virginians are of two types, says Commissioner of Agriculture Parke C. Brinkley,—those who never had enough push to get out of the state, and those who got out, made a lot of money and came back to enjoy it among people who know how to enjoy life. He gave his views to the National Dairy Council.

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

The other day Mrs. John Glennon stopped in to ask if she could borrow the model of the Skillyput which my late father made back in 1921. I told her that it was in the Senate House Museum under glass and lock and key. My father never knew that his little model which graced his store windows for 30 years would someday be in our local museum. He was a very modest man, and I do not think he ever made a speech in his life or was on the board of directors of any organization. Just the same I am so proud that he is remembered for the little things he did, like making that little model. I remember young parents with their very young children used to come to our window and look over the Skillyput model also the Clermont and the Rondout Bridge models. The parents themselves sometimes only remembered it from their extreme youth and of course their youngsters only knew the Skillyput through my father's model. I have often heard them exclaim, "Yes, that's the little ferry that ran between Rondout and Sleightsburg, where the kids go swimming off the dock."

Everyone plans to be remembered long after he is gone either through their children or through various other ways like monuments in cemeteries and perhaps donations for various causes to go on. Of course there are some who just live from day to day meeting their obligations of everyday life, and doing whatever good they can for others in their small way, never expecting or thinking that it's those little things that will carry their memory long after they are gone. I like to write about folks like that. There was John Sottile and old Mr. Dean who planted rose bushes. There was my father who made little models and often displayed them in the window for the young fry rather than filling his windows with sales which would bring him a profit. There was Harry Staples, the truant officer for many years, who saw to it that youngsters who were in need of shoes got them, especially in the winter time. In Mr. Staples' name I thought of the Staples Shoe Fund, which Mr. Harry Edson of the Recreation Department, a friend of his, continues to run. Of course Mr. Staples never knew about it, for I thought of it soon after his death as a suitable memorial to a man who understood the young ones and their needs.

My father's birthday used to fall right about on Father's Day, June 17. That is why when Mrs. Glennon asked for the loan of the Skillyput model for the "Y" exhibit around this time I thought, "How nice, here four years have passed since my father died and he is still remembered for the little things he did." Since a little girl I remembered that my father used to draw pictures that is why he always wanted me to draw. He did not draw scenery but people. He often caught resemblances of folks who stood on the corner and waited for the bus or customers and now when I look through some of his papers I find these sketches and recognize many of the people. Sometimes he just drew tiny comic sketches of folks walking or driving a car. One sketch he made was of Abe Bahl, the late grocer and fruit dealer, with truck and all. The family I think took one of the colored sketches but I have seen one of the pencil sketches around his sketch books.

Two Types

Roanoke, Va. (AP)—Virginians are of two types, says Commissioner of Agriculture Parke C. Brinkley,—those who never had enough push to get out of the state, and those who got out, made a lot of money and came back to enjoy it among people who know how to enjoy life. He gave his views to the National Dairy Council.

17 Reds Appear Headed for Defeat At British Polls

London, May 25 (AP)—Seventeen Communists are running in tomorrow's election. All appear headed for defeat.

Since 1900 there have been only four Communists members of Parliament. The last two failed to survive the 1950 election. That year they ran 100 candidates.

If the candidates fare as indicated tomorrow, the Communist treasury will be $7,140 short. All candidates for Parliament must put up a 150-pound ($420) deposit. This is to discourage freak candidates. If a candidate attracts less than one-eighth of the total vote in his district, the deposit enriches the British treasury. In 1951 all 11 Communist candidates lost their deposits.

53 Priests Arrested

Buenos Aires, Argentina, May 25 (AP)—Fifty-three priests have been arrested since a controversy between the Peron government and the Roman Catholic Church began six months ago. The Rev. Amadeao Roberts, parish priest of Arroyito in Cordoba Province, was the latest. He was arrested today on a charge of disrespect to President Juan D. Peron, the result of a sermon delivered two weeks ago.

Comedy of Errors Wasn't Very Funny

"This hand was a comedy of errors," my friend Alfred Romney told me on one of my recent visits to New York's famous Regency Club. "My partner bid like a lunatic. I bid like another, and the opponents defended as though their feet were asleep. Nevertheless, the hand presents a rather pretty little point."

I certainly agreed with all of Romney's criticism's. North's immediate leap to four no-trump was somewhat foolish. And Romney's decision to go on to six hearts because of the void in spades was very optimistic.

and Romney won with the queen. He now led the queen of hearts, and West hesitated. This was bad news to declarer, but he awaited the outcome with a cheerful face. West finally discarded the three of clubs and Romney played a low trump from dummy.

The idea was to make East take the king of hearts and guess the right return without further help. East was sure that South was void of one of the black suits and that he would defeat the contract if he led the right ace. Which ace should he risk?

East thought that it was important to lead the ace of spades immediately. He thought that he wouldn't lose the club trick even if this guess turned out to be wrong.

East discovered how mistaken he was. Romney trumped the ace of spades, drew the last trump and ran all of the diamonds to discard all of dummy's clubs. It was a very pleasant slam to make.

The pretty little point came at the second trick, when West discarded the three of clubs. West could tell exactly what was going on, and he knew that his discard had to be helpful to his partner. The deuce of spades would tell East nothing, but the three of clubs would be very revealing if East asked himself "Where is the deuce of clubs?"

Hats Are Ruled Out So Delegates Can See

Philadelphia, May 25 (AP)—That feminine moan of anguish emaninating from this city of Brotherly Love is coming from the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Many women came to the General Federation's annual convention with new hats trimmed with flowers, feathers or dodads.

But they are having to leave those bonnets in hat boxes.

Mrs. Theodore S. Chapman, General Federation president, ruled that delegates must come to the convention sessions bareheaded so that rear row sitters can see.

Car Badly Damaged In Freak Accident

A 1955 sedan owned by Francis Martin Avery of Connelly and operated by his son, Edward Avery, was badly damaged when it struck a tree near the Rattray property in Port Ewen Tuesday night in a freak accident.

Avery was proceeding south when he decided to turn around. He reported to Constable Raymond Burr of Port Ewen that the front right wheel caught in the gutter throwing the car into a tree in front of the Rattray property. Avery and a passenger escaped injury.

immediate economic stimulus through creation of more purchasing power, even if it is artificial purchasing power. This would be done through inflationary government spending, wage rises without productivity increases, or tax cuts that would aggravate existing discrimination."

The NAM study listed the following as major requirements for an expanding, prosperous economy:

1. A steady flow of investment capital—private capital provided out of the savings of individuals.

2. Incentive to invest capital; removal of some taxes on investments.

3. Freedom from undue government control and direction.

4. An end of government competition with business.

5. An atmosphere which encourages faith and confidence in the future.

6. Greater understanding of how our free economy operates.

7. Industrial peace based upon the practice of sound human relations between employer and employe.

"The real solution," said the study, "is to improve the real earnings of people and their ability to buy the things they want—on the basis of increases in industry's productive efficiency, better products at lower costs and prices, and all the other techniques of genuine economic progress."

Council had shown continued growth for five years, said that only 35 per cent of the boys in the Council area are being reached by the program. He said "this means a concerted effort on expansion during the coming year through the Council's organization and extension committee and its work. Mr. Dennis also complimented the operating committee chairmen for their work which has resulted in substantial gains in all phases of scouting through the entire Council.

THE EXECUTIVE also lauded the work of the volunteer as the most important key to good scouting. He thanked the unit leaders and their wives for the outstanding year completed.

A goal of $27,760 was announced by Gerald Overbagh of Saugerties, who is returning as finance chairman of the Council. He said that there would be no campaign in those communities covered by the Kingston Area Community Chest. This year's campaign will be held from July 5 to July 11 with the following week to be used for call-backs.

THE NEW BUDGET will include an expanded professional staff of three men, two full-time girls in the Council office, expanded camp facilities for both short and long-term camping at the Council camp, additional training opportunities for both junior leaders and unit leaders, a continuation of the various activities in each of the seven districts and in the Council. The need of adult scouters in the campaign was stressed.

mittee to investigate juvenile delinquency.

The subcommittee has made no intimation of anything improper in Klaw's output.

Sen. William Langer (R.-N. D.) sat with Kefauver yesterday.

DURING the first day of the hearings here, Kefauver estimated that a 350-million-dollar-a-year business in filthy material is operating at present in this country.

Among the witnesses heard during yesterday's opening session was William Deerson, dean of discipline at New York's Haaren High School, who said that distribution of pornography among teen-agers is increasing.

"I believe there is a definite relation between juvenile delinqency and pornographic material," Deerson said. "I feel that this material, if read, entices the young man, stimulates him and leads him to some overt act."

HE SAID that during the current school term he discovered five Haaren High School students peddling a "filthy type of pornographic material dealing with unnatural and perverted sex acts."

Another witness, Dr. Benjamin Karpman, chief psychotherapist at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington, D. C. said:

"...Normal boys and girls exposed to abnormality may be affected for the rest of their lives....

A young boy reaching adolescence, who hungers for information on the facts of life and who doesn't get it at the home or in school, goes into the gutter to get his information."

Karpman said he believes that perversion is on the increase as an aftermath of the war "when women committed adultery because they were left without men, or took up with other women in order not to commit adultery, and men came back from the war with their sex life changed."

Will Have White Curbs

Hartford, Conn., May 25 (AP)—The first reflecting white concrete curbs in Connecticut will be installed at Columbia this summer. State Highway Comsr. Newman Argraves said 4,600 feet of the curbing will be used at the intersection of Route 6 and 6A. New Jersey and New York already have used such curbing, he said. It is designed to help drivers at night, or in fog or rain.

"The real solution," said the study, "is to improve the real earnings of people and their ability to buy the things they want—on the basis of increases in industry's productive efficiency, better products at lower costs and prices, and all the other techniques of genuine economic progress."

Aalto New . . .

Council had shown continued growth for five years, said that only 35 per cent of the boys in the Council area are being reached by the program. He said "this means a concerted effort on expansion during the coming year through the Council's organization and extension committee and its work. Mr. Dennis also complimented the operating committee chairmen for their work which has resulted in substantial gains in all phases of scouting through the entire Council.

THE EXECUTIVE also lauded the work of the volunteer as the most important key to good scouting. He thanked the unit leaders and their wives for the outstanding year completed.

A goal of $27,760 was announced by Gerald Overbagh of Saugerties, who is returning as finance chairman of the Council. He said that there would be no campaign in those communities covered by the Kingston Area Community Chest. This year's campaign will be held from July 5 to July 11 with the following week to be used for call-backs.

THE NEW BUDGET will include an expanded professional staff of three men, two full-time girls in the Council office, expanded camp facilities for both short and long-term camping at the Council camp, additional training opportunities for both junior leaders and unit leaders, a continuation of the various activities in each of the seven districts and in the Council. The need of adult scouters in the campaign was stressed.

Dealer Is Against

mittee to investigate juvenile delinquency.

The subcommittee has made no intimation of anything improper in Klaw's output.

Sen. William Langer (R.-N. D.) sat with Kefauver yesterday.

DURING the first day of the hearings here, Kefauver estimated that a 350-million-dollar-a-year business in filthy material is operating at present in this country.

Among the witnesses heard during yesterday's opening session was William Deerson, dean of discipline at New York's Haaren High School, who said that distribution of pornography among teen-agers is increasing.

"I believe there is a definite relation between juvenile delinqency and pornographic material," Deerson said. "I feel that this material, if read, entices the young man, stimulates him and leads him to some overt act."

HE SAID that during the current school term he discovered five Haaren High School students peddling a "filthy type of pornographic material dealing with unnatural and perverted sex acts."

Another witness, Dr. Benjamin Karpman, chief psychotherapist at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington, D. C. said:

"...Normal boys and girls exposed to abnormality may be affected for the rest of their lives....

A young boy reaching adolescence, who hungers for information on the facts of life and who doesn't get it at the home or in school, goes into the gutter to get his information."

Karpman said he believes that perversion is on the increase as an aftermath of the war "when women committed adultery because they were left without men, or took up with other women in order not to commit adultery, and men came back from the war with their sex life changed."

Will Have White Curbs

Hartford, Conn., May 25 (AP)—The first reflecting white concrete curbs in Connecticut will be installed at Columbia this summer. State Highway Comsr. Newman Argraves said 4,600 feet of the curbing will be used at the intersection of Route 6 and 6A. New Jersey and New York already have used such curbing, he said. Tito: Gifts No Influence

Aid to Yugoslavia May Not Bind Ties

(Editor's note—How far can Tito move toward Moscow and yet retain the benefits he enjoys from his relationship with the West? What has he to fear from Moscow? These are part of Tito's dilemma as he awaits a Soviet delegation ready to confess Stalin was wrong in outlawing Tito as a renegate Communist. William L. Ryan discusses the prospects in this article).

By WILLIAM L. RYAN, AP Foreign News Analyst

President Tito, looking like an American banker in his trim, dark suit, was bristling with annoyance when I saw him last.

His anger seemed added evidence that, if the matter was one for Tito alone to decide, there would be no full family reconciliation with the Comiform. The big question remained, however, whether it would be a matter for Tito alone to decide.

THE TARGET of Tito's anger was Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov. At the time Georgi Malenkov was deposed as Soviet premier, Molotov made a speech. Touching on Yugoslavia, Molotov hinted — just hinted — that Yugoslav Communists were sorry for their past deviations.

Speaking to his Parliament, Tito, grown gray, portly and florid, lit into Molotov for such innuendo. Molotov, he indicated, was trying to push the notion that Yugoslavia's moves toward normal relations with Moscow betrayed a willingness to "correct" past errors of dogma. This sort of thing, said Tito, was "nonsense," throwing doubt on the sincerity of other statements by eastern leaders.

There was an implication in this that during the Malenkov regime, Tito won his battle with Moscow, that his price for full normalization was an open Moscow admission that Stalin had been wrong from the start in his feud with Belgrade. Molotov's speech thus seemed to indicate that, with Malenkov gone, Moscow was reneging on the deal.

THUS IT is a matter of note that Moscow's delegation to Belgrade, ostensibly asking that bygones be bygones, does not include Molotov. He is a reminder of the Stalin era, when Yugoslavia was outlawed.

Evidence at hand indicates Tito will not "redefect" completely to the east. He was educated by Moscow. He would know the risks involved.

But western observers detect some danger. They suspect a division in the Yugoslav Communist party and that a large number of Yugoslav Communists would be happy to collaborate closely with Moscow again.

WHAT ABOUT the ties with the west, the arms and the economic aid which came from the west? Here is one view:

"The arms we receive from the west? What of it? This is sent to us by the workers of America and England and not by some capitalists seeking to exploit the people. This material is sent not for use against the people of Russia, but against the exploiters of the workers everywhere."

This was the answer some resident Yugoslavs in Istanbul, Turkey, said they received from a Communist leader visiting there from the homeland. Whether the quotation is exact or not, it represents a school of Communist thought in Belgrade.

EVEN TITO is not immune from such thinking. He has expressed gratitude to the United States for food sent when Yugoslavia faced hunger, and for other aid. But he added: "We do not consider aid as some sort of bribe; we consider it as a thing involving humane feelings on the one hand, and on the other, something which our people have deserved for all their sacrifices. . ."

Belgrade's Communists will tell you Yugoslavia is Communist and will remain that way. As for arms aid, the reaction one gets is that the Yugoslavs did not ask collaboration with the west: If the west wants it, the west must accept the regime and what goes with it.

IT IS AGAINST such a background that the Soviet Union carries its peace offensive to Belgrade with an unprecedented and humbling visit by three of the most important Moscow rulers.

Tito announced the Soviet leaders could not expect him to jeopardize his good relations with western countries. The Soviet reply was a soft one: Of course, they wanted no such thing. They wanted only to help Yugoslavia improve her relations with all countries, including those of the east.

So long as Tito retains his power, it seems likely he will also seek to retain his ties with the west. He has no future with Moscow. But there are members of his party—some of them in high places—who are suspected of seeing a future for themselves to the east.

Since Tito has may times disavowed any intention of joining a military bloc of states, it seems doubtful he could be lured into the Soviet Union's newly announced mutual security arrangements with the satellite nations. But if Tito is removed from the scene by death, accident or coup, there is no guarantee what his successors might do.

Veteran Vols Are To Meet Thursday

The regular meeting of the Veteran Volunteer Firemen's Association will be held Thursday at 8 p. m. at the A. H. Wicks Engine and Truck Co., Wiltwyck avenue.

Several important matters will be discussed during the final session before the annual Hudson valley convention convening in Kingston in June.

A full attendance of members is anticipated.

Tito: Gifts No Influence

Aid to Yugoslavia May Not Bind Ties

(Editor's note—How far can Tito move toward Moscow and yet retain the benefits he enjoys from his relationship with the West? What has he to fear from Moscow? These are part of Tito's dilemma as he awaits a Soviet delegation ready to confess Stalin was wrong in outlawing Tito as a renegate Communist. William L. Ryan discusses the prospects in this article).

By WILLIAM L. RYAN, AP Foreign News Analyst

President Tito, looking like an American banker in his trim, dark suit, was bristling with annoyance when I saw him last.

His anger seemed added evidence that, if the matter was one for Tito alone to decide, there would be no full family reconciliation with the Comiform. The big question remained, however, whether it would be a matter for Tito alone to decide.

THE TARGET of Tito's anger was Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov. At the time Georgi Malenkov was deposed as Soviet premier, Molotov made a speech. Touching on Yugoslavia, Molotov hinted — just hinted — that Yugoslav Communists were sorry for their past deviations.

Speaking to his Parliament, Tito, grown gray, portly and florid, lit into Molotov for such innuendo. Molotov, he indicated, was trying to push the notion that Yugoslavia's moves toward normal relations with Moscow betrayed a willingness to "correct" past errors of dogma. This sort of thing, said Tito, was "nonsense," throwing doubt on the sincerity of other statements by eastern leaders.

There was an implication in this that during the Malenkov regime, Tito won his battle with Moscow, that his price for full normalization was an open Moscow admission that Stalin had been wrong from the start in his feud with Belgrade. Molotov's speech thus seemed to indicate that, with Malenkov gone, Moscow was reneging on the deal.

THUS IT is a matter of note that Moscow's delegation to Belgrade, ostensibly asking that bygones be bygones, does not include Molotov. He is a reminder of the Stalin era, when Yugoslavia was outlawed.

Evidence at hand indicates Tito will not "redefect" completely to the east. He was educated by Moscow. He would know the risks involved.

But western observers detect some danger. They suspect a division in the Yugoslav Communist party and that a large number of Yugoslav Communists would be happy to collaborate closely with Moscow again.

WHAT ABOUT the ties with the west, the arms and the economic aid which came from the west? Here is one view:

"The arms we receive from the west? What of it? This is sent to us by the workers of America and England and not by some capitalists seeking to exploit the people. This material is sent not for use against the people of Russia, but against the exploiters of the workers everywhere."

This was the answer some resident Yugoslavs in Istanbul, Turkey, said they received from a Communist leader visiting there from the homeland. Whether the quotation is exact or not, it represents a school of Communist thought in Belgrade.

EVEN TITO is not immune from such thinking. He has expressed gratitude to the United States for food sent when Yugoslavia faced hunger, and for other aid. But he added: "We do not consider aid as some sort of bribe; we consider it as a thing involving humane feelings on the one hand, and on the other, something which our people have deserved for all their sacrifices. . ."

Belgrade's Communists will tell you Yugoslavia is Communist and will remain that way. As for arms aid, the reaction one gets is that the Yugoslavs did not ask collaboration with the west: If the west wants it, the west must accept the regime and what goes with it.

IT IS AGAINST such a background that the Soviet Union carries its peace offensive to Belgrade with an unprecedented and humbling visit by three of the most important Moscow rulers.

Tito announced the Soviet leaders could not expect him to jeopardize his good relations with western countries. The Soviet reply was a soft one: Of course, they wanted no such thing. They wanted only to help Yugoslavia improve her relations with all countries, including those of the east.

So long as Tito retains his power, it seems likely he will also seek to retain his ties with the west. He has no future with Moscow. But there are members of his party—some of them in high places—who are suspected of seeing a future for themselves to the east.

Since Tito has may times disavowed any intention of joining a military bloc of states, it seems doubtful he could be lured into the Soviet Union's newly announced mutual security arrangements with the satellite nations. But if Tito is removed from the scene by death, accident or coup, there is no guarantee what his successors might do.

Veteran Vols Are To Meet Thursday

The regular meeting of the Veteran Volunteer Firemen's Association will be held Thursday at 8 p. m. at the A. H. Wicks Engine and Truck Co., Wiltwyck avenue.

Several important matters will be discussed during the final session before the annual Hudson valley convention convening in Kingston in June.

A full attendance of members is anticipated.

Sullivan Covers 200 Years of Fire-Fighting in Kingston Area

City Historian Prepares Story For Convention

(Editor's note: A history of fire-fighting in Kingston for the past 200 years, prepared by City Historian Joseph F. Sullivan, an employe of The Freeman, is presented today as an introductory feature to the annual convention of the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association on June 16, 17 and 18 in Kingston. Mr. Sullivan, a member of Union Hose Company No. 4 for the past 60 years, is the oldest volunteer in the city in point of service.)

The city of Kingston will be host to the annual convention of the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association June 16, 17 and 18.

The first two days will be taken up by the convention deliberations, with the parade being held Saturday, June 18.

THE HUDSON VALLEY Volunteer Firemen's Association is the successor of the Tri-County Firemen's Association. An organization meeting was held in Coxsackie on July 1, 1890, at which time it was decided to form a Tri-County Association, consisting of companies from Greene, Columbia and Ulster counties. The first president was George H. Scott of Coxsackie with Peter P. Zeeh of Kingston as one of the vice-presidents.

Kingston was chosen as the place to have the honor of the first convention Oct. 7, 1890. At this convention officers were elected for 1890-91 with Charles G. Coffin of Catskill as president, Peter P. Zeeh of Kingston vice-president and Tjerck I. Rifenbery of Kingston treasurer. At the second convention held in Hudson in October, 1891, Tjerck I. Rifenbery was elected president and Michael J. Rafferty, a former chief of Kingston, one of the vice-presidents. At the next convention in Catskill in 1892 George L. Wachmeyer, Jr., of Kingston was named treasurer. Also at that time a committee was appointed to look into the feasibility of enlarging the association to include other Hudson valley counties. James G. Tubby of Kingston was the chairman of that committee. The Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association as it now exists, was brought into being at the fourth convention held in Saugerties in October, 1893.

IT MAY BE of interest to our people to learn of the part that Kingston firemen played in the organization and development of the Hudson Valley Association. Eight firemen from Kingston served as president, their terms being: 1891, Tjerck I. Rifenbery; 1896-97, George L. Wachmeyer, Jr.; 1900-01, Joseph C. Hurley; 1911-12, Frank P. Quigley; 1914, Charles H. Parsells; 1920, Roscoe Irwin; 1924, J. Philip Beichert; 1929, William B. Martin. George L. Wachmeyer, Jr., Former Chief Charles L. Quackenbush, John L. O'Shea, Former Chief William H. Koltz and Andrew J. Murphy acted as treasurer, the latter serving in that office for 19 years.

KINGSTON ENTERTAINED the convention seven times, in 1890-1896-1901-1910 - 1919 - 1920 - 1928. And now we are to have the convention and parade for the eighth time.

As part of the firemanic festival to be held in this city it is proposed to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the founding of the volunteer fire system in this community.

The initiation of fire protection was in 1754 when a fire engine was ordered from England. The apparatus did not arrive until the year 1757, but in the meantime the villagers protected their properties with bucket brigades. Unfortunately, the new engine was destroyed by fire in 1778 when the British applied the torch to the village of Kingston. In 1797 the state legislature authorized the Town of Kingston to organize a fire department, and on May 19, 1797, Conrad Elmendorf was appointed captain. The following year Capt. Elmendorf resigned and was succeeded by Nicholas Vanderlyn, Jr. However, the fire company did not thrive for long and in 1802 was disbanded. A new organization was later formed with Vanderlyn as captain.

SHORTLY AFTER the incorporation of the village of Kingston in 1805, the fire department was officially organized with Nicholas Vanderlyn as captain. As years passed and membership in the department increased it was possible to purchase another engine in 1816 and two companies were organized. Need for further fire protection increased with the growth of the village, and in 1840 there were four companies in the Village of Kingston: American Engine Co. No. 1, Niagara Steamer Co. No. 2, Washington Steamer No. 3, and Excelsior Steamer No. 4.

In the village of Rondout there were three companies: Protector Engine Co., Lackawanna Engine Co. and Ponckhockie Engine Co.

The following is the lineup of an inspection parade held in Rondout in October, 1861, as taken from old records: Chief George Weber and assistants, Van Etten and Winters, Rondout Band, foremen of various companies, Exempt firemen and guests, Lackawanna Engine Company, Lackawanna Hose Company, Excelsior Hose Company of Kingston with Excelsior hose carriage, Protector Engine Company, Rescue Hook & Ladder Company, Ponckhockie Engine Company, Von Beck Engine Company of South Rondout, and Rapid Hose Company.

WHEN THE VILLAGES of Kingston and Rondout were merged in 1872 to form the city of Kingston two fire departments were formed, called the Eastern and the Western Departments, each with its own officers. In 1876 the city charter was amended to provide for one chief and four assistants.

In the Western Department consisting of the companies in the upper part of the city, the first chief was Cornelius Burhans, followed by John A. Green and William T. Newkirk. In the Eastern Department, or Rondout section, Augustus Hasbrouck was the first chief, succeeded by George Weber and Richard Mooney. In 1878 when the two departments were merged under one head, Richard Mooney was named the first chief. He served in that office for three different terms. George Weber was the second chief, followed by Richard Mooney, John P. Derrenbacher, Richard Mooney, Theron Johnson, James S. Winne, William H. Koltz, Michael J. Rafferty, Charles L. Quackenbush, Rodney A. Chipp and Joseph L. Murphy.

THE LIST of chiefs and the companies to which they belonged, as far as known, are as follows:

Western Department—Cornelius Burhans, John A. Green and William T. Newkirk.

Eastern Department — Augustus Hasbrouck, George Weber, Weber Hose Company and Richard Mooney, Cornell Hose Company.

1878—Richard Mooney, Cornell Hose Co.; George Weber, Weber Hose Co.; John P. Derrenbacher, Rapid Hose Co.; Richard Mooney, Cornell Hose Co.; Theron Johnson, Wiltwyck Hose Co.; James S. Winne, Wiltwyck Hose Co.; William H. Koltz, Weiner Hose Co.; Michael J. Rafferty, Union Hose Co.; Charles L. Quackenbush, Cornell Hose Co.; Rodney A. Chipp, Clinton Hose Co.; Joseph L. Murphy, Union Hose Co.

The annual report of Chief George Weber in 1881 showed the department to consist of one chief engineer and four assistants, with 20 companies and 338 firemen.

AMONG THE COMPANIES which have functioned down through the years were: Lackawanna Steam Engine Co., No. 1, Mill street; Lindsley Steam Engine Co. No. 2, Abeel street; Ponckhockie Engine Co. No. 3, Union street; Washington Steam Engine Co. No. 2, Fair street; American Hand Engine Co. No. 1, Clinton avenue; Clinton Steam Engine Co. No. 5, Fair street; Protector Hand Engine Co. No. 4, Hone street; Hallahan Hand Engine Co. No. 5, Dunne street; George H. Sharpe Hand Engine Co. No. 6, Hasbrouck avenue; Wiltwyck Hose Co. No. 1, Fair street; Rapid Hose Co. No. 1, Hone street; Cornell Hose Co. No. 2, Abeel street; Kingston Hose Co. No. 2, Clinton avenue; Weber Hose Co. No. 3, Mill street; Excelsior Hose Co. No. 4, Crown street; Union Hose Co. No. 4, East Union street; Booth Hose Co. No. 5, Abeel street; Franklin Hose Co. No. 6, Hasbrouck avenue; Rescue Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, Abeel street; A. Sahler Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, Crown street, M. J. Moore Hose Co. and Clinton Hose Co., Clinton avenue.

At the present time there are 10 volunteer fire companies serving the city. The names of these and a short sketch relative to their organization and equipment follows:

WILTWYCK HOSE CO. NO. 1 was organized Jan. 1, 1857, in the village of Kingston and has continued until the present as one of the finest fire-fighting units in the department. In responding to calls for their services the members of the company accompany the apparatus stationed at the Wiltwyck Station of the paid department. This company also has been known as the Wiltwyck Hook & Ladder Company. In the early days the company owned a handsome parade carriage and won many prizes with it, not only for beauty of their apparatus, but also for the fine appearance of the men in line. A long line of prominent members of the department were members of Wiltwyck. The company is still active, socially as well as in the performance of firemanic duties.

City Historian

JOSEPH F. SULLIVAN

RESCUE HOOK & LADDER CO. NO. 1 was organized in April, 1857, in the village of Rondout, and was the only hook and ladder company in the lower part of the area which is now the city of Kingston. The company was incorporated July 26, 1888. Its headquarters are at 88 Abeel street, the fire station of the paid department. In answering alarms the members respond with the apparatus from Cornell Station. A newly organized ladies' auxiliary is a valuable aid to the social life of Rescues.

RAPID HOSE CO. NO. 1 was organized Sept. 29, 1860, and is one of the oldest fire organizations in the city. It was incorporated in 1877. With headquarters at 86 Hone street, its equipment consists of a 500-gal. Dodge Pumper. This company also possessed a handsome parade carriage which won prizes at many conventions. A newly organized ladies' auxiliary is now most active in promoting the interests of the firemen. The company responds to alarms in the Rondout section of the city, as well as the Wilbur area.

UNION HOSE COMPANY NO. 4 was organized Oct. 6, 1876. Its headquarters are at 218 East Union street, where it has been located during the 79 years of its existence. It is the successor of Ponckhockie Engine Company and Gokey Hose Company. Union Hose covers the Ponckhockie section, as well as part of Rondout, and is active in responding to alarms. Its equipment consists of a Sanford Hose Wagon with booster pump tank. The company still has in its custody an old-time parade carriage, one of the few remaining reminders of the days when such apparatus was a "must" and a pride of the owners. A thriving and enthusiastic ladies' auxiliary has for many years aided the company in many worthwhile endeavors for the benefit of the community, in addition to their efforts in the prevention and overcoming of fires down through the years.

EXCELSIOR HOSE CO. NO. 4 was organized Dec. 17, 1883. It is a successor to an earlier Excelsior Hose Company which was in existence as early as 1854 and took part in a parade, as noted elsewhere, in 1861. However, this company was disbanded for a few years after the burning of their building. The present company soon was organized and has carried on the traditions of its predecessor and namesake. Excelsiors are now located on Hurley avenue and are equipped with a 750-gal. American LaFrance truck. Their territory covers that section of the city, formerly known as Higginsville and they are most active, having a long time reputation as efficient fire fighters. Their ladies' auxiliary is a thriving one and render valuable aid to the company in many ways.

WEINER HOSE CO. NO. 6 was organized April 12, 1878, and was named in honor of Isaac and Richard Weiner, two prominent merchants of that period. At the time of organization it was called the Franklin Hose Co. The name was later changed to the Ike and Dick Co. and subsequently the designation of Weiner Hose Co. was adopted. The company was incorporated in 1888. Their headquarters are at Central Fire Station, 19 East O'Reilly street. They respond to alarms calling out the men from the Central station, with the apparatus stationed there. Their ladies' auxiliary has functioned for many years and has aided materially in the social life of the company. The beautiful silver plated parade carriage owned by Weiners won many prizes in years past. It is now an exhibit at the museum at the Firemen's Home in Hudson.

CORNELL HOSE CO. NO. 2 was named for Thomas Cornell, a prominent industrialist and towing boat owner in the early days of Rondout. The company was organized March 2, 1881, and has occupied the same quarters on Abeel street since its inception. Incorporated in 1884, they have rendered faithful service for many years. In the days when appearance of men and parade carriage was the pride of each company, Cornell Hose possessed a handsome silver plated apparatus which won many prizes at conventions. The men also were smartly uniformed and could be counted on to bring home a prize or two at each appearance. The company headquarters is at 88 Abeel street. In responding to alarms, they accompany the apparatus stationed at the Cornell Station at that location.

TWAALFSKILL HOSE CO. NO. 5, stationed in the Wilbur section of the city, was organized May 14, 1888. Its first quarters were at Dunne and Abeel street, where it still is located. This company was a successor to several other fire organizations, namely Washington Engine Company, Hallahan Engine Company, Booth Hose Company. Twaalfskill's territory covers Wilbur and some parts of the lower end of the city. Their equipment consists of a Sanford Hose Wagon, with booster tank. They render valuable service in the area entrusted to their care.

CORDTS HOSE CO. NO. 8, organized in Feb., 1894, was incorporated in June, 1895. The company was named for State Senator John N. Cordts, who for many years was its president and sponsor. His son, John N. Cordts, Jr., still carries on the tradition established by his father. Cordts Hose is located in the Ponckhockie section, its headquarters being at 211 Delaware avenue, near School No. 4. Their equipment consists of 1 500-gal. Dodge Pumper. The area covered by this company includes Ponckhockie, Kingston Point and parts of Rondout where they render valuable service. An enthusiastic ladies' auxiliary assists in the social life of the company and aids the men in many activities.

THE A. H. WICKS Engine & Truck Co. is the successor of Engine Co. No. 1, which was organized in 1816. This company was later known as Central Hook & Ladder Co. The A. H. Wicks Engine No. 4 was organized in 1941 and covers territory in the Second and Third wards. In 1951 the company incorporated as the A. H. Wicks Engine & Truck Co. No. 4. They are located at 17 Wiltwyck avenue and are well equipped with a 500-gal. White Pumper and a Sanford squad car. They perform faithful service in their territory. While young in years as compared with other companies this organization is making a name for itself for performance of duty.

There are two organizations now functioning in this city, composed of men who have served the required five years in the volunteer fire department, which entitles them to an exempt certificate. These are the Exempt Firemen's Association and the Veteran Volunteer Firemen's Association, which is most interested in promoting the coming convention. Many of the members of these bodies while holding exempt certificates, are still active in the work of the department.

IN THE OLDEN DAYS the volunteers had to depend on alarms sounded from bells in different sections of the city, not always attached to the firehouses. Any citizen seeing a blaze, would notify someone who had access to the bells and in that way an alarm was given. Often it was necessary at night to go from house to house to call out enough men to haul the apparatus to the scene of the fire. This time consuming process often resulted in a fire obtaining such a start that it was difficult to control. To remedy this situation in 1896 the Gamewell Fire Alarm system was installed, with bells on various firehouses on which the alarm was sounded by pulling a hook in a box at different locations throughout the city. Last year due to the depreciation of the system, a new method of giving an alarm was adopted through air sirens replacing the bells.

As the city continued to grow and the fire hazards became more numerous, it was felt that a partly paid fire department was a necessity. Accordingly in his message of Jan. 1, 1907, Mayor A. Wesley Thompson advocated the formation of a partly paid system for the city. Mayor Thompson resigned in May of 1907 due to ill health and Walter P. Crane became mayor. Shortly after, the legislature passed an act authorizing the creating of a partly paid department. Under this act Mayor Crane named Benjamin C. Hornbeck, Louis Koltz and Charles A. Davis as members of a Board of Fire Commissioners. Rodney A. Chipp was chosen as chief of the department and Joseph L. Murphy as deputy chief. It is interesting to note that during the 48 years since the organization of the department but two men have served as chief, Rodney A. Chipp, who served until 1924, when he retired and Joseph L. Murphy was appointed and has continued since.

FROM A HUMBLE beginning the department has grown in importance and efficiency until today it is considered to be one of the finest departments in the state in cities of similar size. From the days of the horse drawn apparatus the department has been entirely motorized, and equipped with all the modern essentials for use in fire fighting in these days.

The personnel of the department now comprises a chief, three deputy chiefs, six captains, one fire alarm electrician, one equipment mechanic, 35 firemen, two dispatchers. The Central Station is also headquarters for the Mutual Aid System for Ulster county.

The equipment at the various stations consists of the following:

CENTRAL STATION, 19 East O'Reilly street—One 1000-gallon Mack pumper, one 85-ft. aerial ladder truck, American LaFrance, one GMC fire alarm truck, one 6-cylinder Nash chief's car.

CORNELL STATION, 88 Abeel street — One 750-gallon Mack pumper.

WILTWYCK STATION, 267 Fair street — One 750-gallon Mack pumper, one 65-ft aerial ladder truck, Peter Pirsch. Apparatus in station are equipped with All-purpose gas masks, Chemox gas masks and Scot Air Paks masks.

This convention and parade is dedicated to Chief Joseph L. Murphy who is soon to retire as head of the Kingston Fire Department. Chief Murphy has given 53 years of his life to the fire department of this city. Joining Union Hose Company No. 4 on August 2, 1902, he still retains his membership in that company of which he is a life member. He served as foreman of the volunteer company and in 1908 was appointed assistant chief in the volunteer department. On Jan. 1, 1910, at the organization of the partly paid department, Chief Murphy was named deputy chief under Chief Rodney A. Chipp. With the retirement of Chief Chipp Nov. 1, 1924, Chief Murphy succeeded and has served in that capacity for the past 30 years.

BESIDES HIS interest and activity in the Kingston Fire Department, he has found time to affiliate with various other firemanic organizations. He is one of the founders of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association, and helped to organize the Mutual Aid System in Ulster county. Chief Murphy is also a member of the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association, a past president of the New York State Fire Chiefs' Association and the National Fire Protection Association.

Due to his enviable record of service and accomplishment he has been cited as one of the outstanding fire chiefs of New York state and has earned the admiration and respect of all those in any way connected with fire protection and prevention.

..When it became known that this efficient officer had reached the retirement age, the officials and citizens of Kingston expressed themselves as anxious to retain his services for as long as possible. In compliance with these expressed wishes the State Board granted an extension to Chief Murphy until June 30.

IT IS MOST FITTING that this devoted public servant should close his career with a tribute which will be most pleasing to him — the dedication of this convention in his honor. While he retires as active head of the department he will still retain his volunteer status as a member of the department. His interest in things firemanic will not wane, and his duty as a citizen will always aid him in keeping in touch with the department, which he has played so important a part in founding and developing through the years.

(As a fellow member of Union Hose Company for more than 50 years, the writer extends his congratulations upon the completion of a career filled with success of accomplishment. The citizenry of Kingston owes him a debt of gratitude for a job well done.)

Sullivan Covers 200 Years of Fire-Fighting in Kingston Area

ity Historian Prepares Story or Convention

(Editor's note: A history of re-fighting in Kingston for the ast 200 years, prepared by City listorian Joseph F. Sullivan, n employe of The Freeman, is resented today as an introuctory feature to the annual onvention of the Hudson Valley olunteer Firemen's Association n June 16, 17 and 18 in Kingson. Mr. Sullivan, a member of Union Hose Company No. 4 for he past 60 years, is the oldest olunteer in the city in point of ervice.)

The city of Kingston will be host to the annual convention of the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association June 16, 17 and 18.

The first two days will be taken up by the convention deliberations, with the parade being held Saturday, June 18.

THE HUDSON VALLEY Volunteer Firemen's Association is the successor of the Tri-County Firemen's Association. An organization meeting was held in Coxsackie on July 1, 1890, at which time it was decided to form a Tri-County Association, consisting of companies from Greene, Columbia and Ulster counties. The first president was George H. Scott of Coxsackie with Peter P. Zeeh of Kingston as one of the vice-presidents.

Kingston was chosen as the place to have the honor of the first convention Oct. 7, 1890. At this convention officers were elected for 1890-91 with Charles G. Coffin of Catskill as president, Peter P. Zeeh of Kingston vice-president and Tjerck I. Rifenbery of Kingston treasurer. At the second convention held in Hudson in October, 1891, Tjerck I. Rifenbery was elected president and Michael J. Rafferty, a former chief of Kingston, one of the vice-presidents. At the next convention in Catskill in 1892 George L. Wachmeyer, Jr., of Kingston was named treasurer. Also at that time a committee was appointed to look into the feasibility of enlarging the association to include other Hudson valley counties. James G. Tubby of Kingston was the chairman of that committee. The Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association as it now exists, was brought into being at the fourth convention held in Saugerties in October, 1893.

IT MAY BE of interest to our people to learn of the part that Kingston firemen played in the organization and development of the Hudson Valley Association. Eight firemen from Kingston served as president, their terms being: 1891, Tjerck I. Rifenbery; 1896-97, George L. Wachmeyer, Jr.; 1900-01, Joseph C. Hurley; 1911-12, Frank P. Quigley; 1914, Charles H. Parsells; 1920, Roscoe Irwin; 1924, J. Philip Beichert; 1929, William B. Martin. George L. Wachmeyer, Jr., Former Chief Charles L. Quackenbush, John L. O'Shea, Former Chief William H. Koltz and Andrew J. Murphy acted as treasurer, the latter serving in that office for 19 years.

KINGSTON ENTERTAINED the convention seven times, in 1890-1896-1901-1910 - 1919 - 1920 - 1928. And now we are to have the convention and parade for the eighth time.

As part of the firemanic festival to be held in this city it is proposed to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the founding of the volunteer fire system in this community.

The initiation of fire protection was in 1754 when a fire engine was ordered from England. The apparatus did not arrive until the year 1757, but in the meantime the villagers protected their properties with bucket brigades. Unfortunately, the new engine was destroyed by fire in 1778 when the British applied the torch to the village of Kingston. In 1797 the state legislature authorized the Town of Kingston to organize a fire department, and on May 19, 1797, Conrad Elmendorf was appointed captain. The following year Capt. Elmendorf resigned and was succeeded by Nicholas Vanderlyn, Jr. However, the fire company did not thrive for long and in 1802 was disbanded. A new organization was later formed with Vanderlyn as captain.

SHORTLY AFTER the incorporation of the village of Kingston in 1805, the fire department was officially organized with Nicholas Vanderlyn as captain. As years passed and membership in the department increased it was possible to purchase another engine in 1816 and two companies were organized. Need for further fire protection increased with the growth of the village, and in 1840 there were four companies in the Village of Kingston: American Engine Co. No. 1, Niagara Steamer Co. No. 2, Washington Steamer No. 3, and Excelsior Steamer No. 4.

In the village of Rondout there were three companies: Protector Engine Co., Lackawanna Engine Co. and Ponckhockie Engine Co.

The following is the lineup of an inspection parade held in Rondout in October, 1861, as taken from old records: Chief George Weber and assistants, Van Etten and Winters, Rondout Band, foremen of various companies, Exempt firemen and guests, Lackawanna Engine Company, Lackawanna Hose Company, Excelsior Hose Company of Kingston with Excelsior hose carriage, Protector Engine Company, Rescue Hook & Ladder Company, Ponckhockie Engine Company, Von Beck Engine Company of South Rondout, and Rapid Hose Company.

WHEN THE VILLAGES of Kingston and Rondout were merged in 1872 to form the city of Kingston two fire departments were formed, called the Eastern and the Western Departments, each with its own officers. In 1876 the city charter was amended to provide for one chief and four assistants.

In the Western Department consisting of the companies in the upper part of the city, the first chief was Cornelius Burhans, followed by John A. Green and William T. Newkirk. In the Eastern Department, or Rondout section, Augustus Hasbrouck was the first chief, succeeded by George Weber and Richard Mooney. In 1878 when the two departments were merged under one head, Richard Mooney was named the first chief. He served in that office for three different terms. George Weber was the second chief, followed by Richard Mooney, John P. Derrenbacher, Richard Mooney, Theron Johnson, James S. Winne, William H. Koltz, Michael J. Rafferty, Charles L. Quackenbush, Rodney A. Chipp and Joseph L. Murphy.

THE LIST of chiefs and the companies to which they belonged, as far as known, are as follows:

Western Department—Cornelius Burhans, John A. Green and William T. Newkirk.

Eastern Department — Augustus Hasbrouck, George Weber, Weber Hose Company and Richard Mooney, Cornell Hose Company.

1878—Richard Mooney, Cornell Hose Co.; George Weber, Weber Hose Co.; John P. Derrenbacher, Rapid Hose Co.; Richard Mooney, Cornell Hose Co.; Theron Johnson, Wiltwyck Hose Co.; James S. Winne, Wiltwyck Hose Co.; William H. Koltz, Weiner Hose Co.; Michael J. Rafferty, Union Hose Co.; Charles L. Quackenbush, Cornell Hose Co.; Rodney A. Chipp, Clinton Hose Co.; Joseph L. Murphy, Union Hose Co.

The annual report of Chief George Weber in 1881 showed the department to consist of one chief engineer and four assistants, with 20 companies and 338 firemen.

AMONG THE COMPANIES which have functioned down through the years were: Lackawanna Steam Engine Co., No. 1, Mill street; Lindsley Steam Engine Co. No. 2, Abeel street; Ponckhockie Engine Co. No. 3, Union street; Washington Steam Engine Co. No. 2, Fair street; American Hand Engine Co. No. 1, Clinton avenue; Clinton Steam Engine Co. No. 5, Fair street; Protector Hand Engine Co. No. 4, Hone street; Hallahan Hand Engine Co. No. 5, Dunne street; George H. Sharpe Hand Engine Co. No. 6, Hasbrouck avenue; Wiltwyck Hose Co. No. 1, Fair street; Rapid Hose Co. No. 1, Hone street; Cornell Hose Co. No. 2, Abeel street; Kingston Hose Co. No. 2, Clinton avenue; Weber Hose Co. No. 3, Mill street; Excelsior Hose Co. No. 4, Crown street; Union Hose Co. No. 4, East Union street; Booth Hose Co. No. 5, Abeel street; Franklin Hose Co. No. 6, Hasbrouck avenue; Rescue Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, Abeel street; A. Sahler Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, Crown street, M. J. Moore Hose Co. and Clinton Hose Co., Clinton avenue.

At the present time there are 10 volunteer fire companies serving the city. The names of these and a short sketch relative to their organization and equipment follows:

WILTWYCK HOSE CO. NO. 1 was organized Jan. 1, 1857, in the village of Kingston and has continued until the present as one of the finest fire-fighting units in the department. In responding to calls for their services the members of the company accompany the apparatus stationed at the Wiltwyck Station of the paid department. This company also has been known as the Wiltwyck Hook & Ladder Company. In the early days the company owned a handsome parade carriage and won many prizes with it, not only for beauty of their apparatus, but also for the fine appearance of the men in line. A long line of prominent members of the department were members of Wiltwyck. The company is still active, socially as well as in the performance of firemanic duties.

City Historian

JOSEPH F. SULLIVAN

RESCUE HOOK & LADDER CO. NO. 1 was organized in April, 1857, in the village of Rondout, and was the only hook and ladder company in the lower part of the area which is now the city of Kingston. The company was incorporated July 26, 1888. Its headquarters are at 88 Abeel street, the fire station of the paid department. In answering alarms the members respond with the apparatus from Cornell Station. A newly organized ladies' auxiliary is a valuable aid to the social life of Rescues.

RAPID HOSE CO. NO. 1 was organized Sept. 29, 1860, and is one of the oldest fire organizations in the city. It was incorporated in 1877. With headquarters at 86 Hone street, its equipment consists of a 500-gal. Dodge Pumper. This company also possessed a handsome parade carriage which won prizes at many conventions. A newly organized ladies' auxiliary is now most active in promoting the interests of the firemen. The company responds to alarms in the Rondout section of the city, as well as the Wilbur area.

UNION HOSE COMPANY NO. 4 was organized Oct. 6, 1876. Its headquarters are at 218 East Union street, where it has been located during the 79 years of its existence. It is the successor of Ponckhockie Engine Company and Gokey Hose Company. Union Hose covers the Ponckhockie section, as well as part of Rondout, and is active in responding to alarms. Its equipment consists of a Sanford Hose Wagon with booster pump tank. The company still has in its custody an old-time parade carriage, one of the few remaining reminders of the days when such apparatus was a "must" and a pride of the owners. A thriving and enthusiastic ladies' auxiliary has for many years aided the company in many worthwhile endeavors for the benefit of the community, in addition to their efforts in the prevention and overcoming of fires down through the years.

EXCELSIOR HOSE CO. NO. 4 was organized Dec. 17, 1883. It is a successor to an earlier Excelsior Hose Company which was in existence as early as 1854 and took part in a parade, as noted elsewhere, in 1861. However, this company was disbanded for a few years after the burning of their building. The present company soon was organized and has carried on the traditions of its predecessor and namesake. Excelsiors are now located on Hurley avenue and are equipped with a 750-gal. American LaFrance truck. Their territory covers that section of the city, formerly known as Higginsville and they are most active, having a long time reputation as efficient fire fighters. Their ladies' auxiliary is a thriving one and render valuable aid to the company in many ways.

WEINER HOSE CO. NO. 6 was organized April 12, 1878, and was named in honor of Isaac and Richard Weiner, two prominent merchants of that period. At the time of organization it was called the Franklin Hose Co. The name was later changed to the Ike and Dick Co. and subsequently the designation of Weiner Hose Co. was adopted. The company was incorporated in 1888. Their headquarters are at Central Fire Station, 19 East O'Reilly street. They respond to alarms calling out the men from the Central station, with the apparatus stationed there. Their ladies' auxiliary has functioned for many years and has aided materially in the social life of the company. The beautiful silver plated parade carriage owned by Weiners won many prizes in years past. It is now an exhibit at the museum at the Firemen's Home in Hudson.

CORNELL HOSE CO. NO. 2 was named for Thomas Cornell, a prominent industrialist and towing boat owner in the early days of Rondout. The company was organized March 2, 1881, and has occupied the same quarters on Abeel street since its inception. Incorporated in 1884, they have rendered faithful service for many years. In the days when appearance of men and parade carriage was the pride of each company, Cornell Hose possessed a handsome silver plated apparatus which won many prizes at conventions. The men also were smartly uniformed and could be counted on to bring home a prize or two at each appearance. The company headquarters is at 88 Abeel street. In responding to alarms, they accompany the apparatus stationed at the Cornell Station at that location.

TWAALFSKILL HOSE CO. NO. 5, stationed in the Wilbur section of the city, was organized May 14, 1888. Its first quarters were at Dunne and Abeel street, where it still is located. This company was a successor to several other fire organizations, namely Washington Engine Company, Hallahan Engine Company, Booth Hose Company. Twaalfskill's territory covers Wilbur and some parts of the lower end of the city. Their equipment consists of a Sanford Hose Wagon, with booster tank. They render valuable service in the area entrusted to their care.

CORDTS HOSE CO. NO. 8, organized in Feb., 1894, was incorporated in June, 1895. The company was named for State Senator John N. Cordts, who for many years was its president and sponsor. His son, John N. Cordts, Jr., still carries on the tradition established by his father. Cordts Hose is located in the Ponckhockie section, its headquarters being at 211 Delaware avenue, near School No. 4. Their equipment consists of 1 500-gal. Dodge Pumper. The area covered by this company includes Ponckhockie, Kingston Point and parts of Rondout where they render valuable service. An enthusiastic ladies' auxiliary assists in the social life of the company and aids the men in many activities.

THE A. H. WICKS Engine & Truck Co. is the successor of Engine Co. No. 1, which was organized in 1816. This company was later known as Central Hook & Ladder Co. The A. H. Wicks Engine No. 4 was organized in 1941 and covers territory in the Second and Third wards. In 1951 the company incorporated as the A. H. Wicks Engine & Truck Co. No. 4. They are located at 17 Wiltwyck avenue and are well equipped with a 500-gal. White Pumper and a Sanford squad car. They perform faithful service in their territory. While young in years as compared with other companies this organization is making a name for itself for performance of duty.

There are two organizations now functioning in this city, composed of men who have served the required five years in the volunteer fire department, which entitles them to an exempt certificate. These are the Exempt Firemen's Association and the Veteran Volunteer Firemen's Association, which is most interested in promoting the coming convention. Many of the members of these bodies while holding exempt certificates, are still active in the work of the department.

IN THE OLDEN DAYS the volunteers had to depend on alarms sounded from bells in different sections of the city, not always attached to the firehouses. Any citizen seeing a blaze, would notify someone who had access to the bells and in that way an alarm was given. Often it was necessary at night to go from house to house to call out enough men to haul the apparatus to the scene of the fire. This time consuming process often resulted in a fire obtaining such a start that it was difficult to control. To remedy this situation in 1896 the Gamewell Fire Alarm system was installed, with bells on various firehouses on which the alarm was sounded by pulling a hook in a box at different locations throughout the city. Last year due to the depreciation of the system, a new method of giving an alarm was adopted through air sirens replacing the bells.

WILTWYCK STATION, 267 Fair street — One 750-gallon Mack pumper, one 65-ft aerial ladder truck, Peter Pirsch. Apparatus in station are equipped with All-purpose gas masks, Chemox gas masks and Scot Air Paks masks.

WHEN THE DISHES ARE WASHED

Today's first letter is from a man who tells me: "My wife can't stand to see dirty dishes around and as soon as dinner is over, she clears the table and starts to wash the dishes. This is all right when we are alone, but she also does it when we have guests in for dinner. I do not think this is right and that she should wait until the guests have gone home to wash the dishes. I would very much appreciate your opinion on this matter."

I agree with you. She should not do more than quickly scrape the food off the plates and leave them to soak until the guests have gone.

When Silence Is Golden

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine tells me that in Europe (in some countries at least) it is entirely proper to burp after a meal and that this is looked upon as evidence of satisfaction and appreciation, and is a sort of thank you for a delicious dinner. He also says that one never excuses him (or her) self for this. Can there be any truth to this statement?

Answer: I think that the country of the legend your friend tells you of is not in Europe but is China. In this country, at any rate, we should make every effort not to offend by "burping." If one should unavoidably do so, it is better not to draw anyone's further attention to it by apologizing.

Picking Up a Dessert Fork

Dear Mrs. Post: This question has come up in our Home Economics class and we would like you to answer it for us. With which hand do you pick up the dessert fork when it is placed on the left hand side of the plate? Do you pick it up in your left hand and then switch it to your right, or do you reach across and pick it up in your right hand?

Answer: You pick it up with your left hand, and then if you are going to use it in your right hand, you change it to that hand.

Nixon Criticizes Sniping at Ike, Asks for Support

Rochester, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Vice President Nixon urges less "sniping" and more support for President Eisenhower in the forthcoming Big-Four conference.

The vice president named no names but noted that the impending top-level conference between the United States, Britain, Russia and France had touched off some predictions of "appeasement" and a sellout of U. S. interests.

"RATHER than expressing apprehension about the conference, we should recognize that our leaders are going into it in a position of strength rather than weakness and with their eyes wide open," Nixon said last night.

"Rather than being sniped at from the rear, they should be supported to the hilt by the American people."

Nixon addressed a Parents' Orientation Conference of the Military Chaplins Assn., of the United States.

THE ASSOCIATION presented Nixon with its gold award for his efforts to make the youth of America more aware of their responsibilities to the military services.

Sen. Knowland of California and Sen. Bridges of New Hampshire, both Republicans, have raised misgivings about U. S. participation in the four-power conference. Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) has denounced the prospect as an "appeasement" of the Reds.

Nixon said the United States had "learned a lot in the 10 years since the last Big Four conference.

"We know now that concessions of territory to the Communists only whet their appetite—they do not satisfy them," he declared.

Engineer Phones Wife, Found Dead in Home

Weymouth, Mass., May 25 (AP)—Joseph Guidi, 42, an electrical engineer, telephoned his wife in Bangor, Maine, yesterday and advised her: "Listen very carefully."

Mrs. Anna Guidi, 38, said that after those words by her husband there was a shot and then silence.

She telephoned Weymouth police, who went to the Guidi home and found the husband dead of a bullet wound in the head.

Mrs. Guidi and her four children were visiting friends near Bangor, Maine.

Mrs. Guidi told police she could not explain her husband's actions. She said there had been no domestic trouble and there were no worries about finances or health.

Saves Beer for Firemen

Rochester, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—When fire wrecked the Midvale Golf Club in the nearby town of Perinton yesterday, bartender George (Doc) Osborn kept his head. He carried out the cash register, 10 cases of whiskey, and 100 bottles of beer. Then he served the beer—free—to the volunteer firemen fighting the blaze. The fire did $75,000 damage, Fire Chief Clinton Smith estimated.

Statewide Move Is Planned on Panther Project

Watertown, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Proponents of the controversial Panther mountain dam are planning a statewide campaign for passage of a constitutional amendment authorizing its construction.

About 75 persons from several communities met here last night and formed a temporary committee of eight to select a larger statewide committee. Sen. Henry A. Wise, Watertown Republican, presided.

Wise promised an intensive campaign of advertising and speech-making for construction of the dam on the south branch of the Moose river in Herkimer county.

THE AMENDMENT has been passed as required by two separately elected Legislatures and will come up for final action in a referendum next November.

The dam would flood about 4,900 acres of land—1,500 in the Adirondack Forest Preserve and 3,400 leased by the Adirondack League Club, a private sportsmen's group.

Sportmen's groups have opposed the project on the ground that it would infringe on the forest preserve.

PROPONENTS maintain the dam is needed for flood control and electric power generation.

Harold Garno, legislative representative of the state CIO council contended at the meeting that one million CIO members in the state would support the amendment.

Says Ike Agrees

Paris, May 25 (AP)—French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay today said that President Eisenhower had accepted the dates of July 18-21 for the proposed meeting of Big Four chiefs of state. The place for the meeting will be decided by the foreign ministers of the United States, Russia Britain and France when they meet in San Francisco for the anniversary celebration of the United Nations, Pinay told a news conference.

Probe Blast Angle In Airman's Death

Machiasport, Maine, May 25 (AP) — Investigators said last night they are exploring a possibility that debris from nearby blasting operations, accidentally killed Airman 3C Frederick H. Meyer, 19.

The bruised body of Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer of Corona, N. Y., was found Saturday beside a .22 caliber rifle in a gravel pit not far from Bucks Harbor Air Force Station.

Civil investigators said an autopsy showed the serviceman had not been shot. They said that it was established blasting was in progress about the time of Meyer's death, and that rock chunks from the blast flew toward the pit.

The probers said they had found no sign of foul play.

The jet stream is a current of air moving from 100 to 500 miles per hour about eight miles above the earth.

Nixon Criticizes Sniping at Ike, Asks for Support

Rochester, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Vice President Nixon urges less "sniping" and more support for President Eisenhower in the forthcoming Big-Four conference.

The vice president named no names but noted that the impending top-level conference between the United States, Britain, Russia and France had touched off some predictions of "appeasement" and a sellout of U. S. interests.

"RATHER than expressing apprehension about the conference, we should recognize that our leaders are going into it in a position of strength rather than weakness and with their eyes wide open," Nixon said last night.

"Rather than being sniped at from the rear, they should be supported to the hilt by the American people."

Nixon addressed a Parents' Orientation Conference of the Military Chaplins Assn., of the United States.

THE ASSOCIATION presented Nixon with its gold award for his efforts to make the youth of America more aware of their responsibilities to the military services.

Sen. Knowland of California and Sen. Bridges of New Hampshire, both Republicans, have raised misgivings about U. S. participation in the four-power conference. Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) has denounced the prospect as an "appeasement" of the Reds.

Nixon said the United States had "learned a lot in the 10 years since the last Big Four conference.

"We know now that concessions of territory to the Communists only whet their appetite—they do not satisfy them," he declared.

Engineer Phones Wife, Found Dead in Home

Weymouth, Mass., May 25 (AP)—Joseph Guidi, 42, an electrical engineer, telephoned his wife in Bangor, Maine, yesterday and advised her: "Listen very carefully."

Mrs. Anna Guidi, 38, said that after those words by her husband there was a shot and then silence.

She telephoned Weymouth police, who went to the Guidi home and found the husband dead of a bullet wound in the head.

Mrs. Guidi and her four children were visiting friends near Bangor, Maine.

Mrs. Guidi told police she could not explain her husband's actions. She said there had been no domestic trouble and there were no worries about finances or health.

Saves Beer for Firemen

Rochester, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—When fire wrecked the Midvale Golf Club in the nearby town of Perinton yesterday, bartender George (Doc) Osborn kept his head. He carried out the cash register, 10 cases of whiskey, and 100 bottles of beer. Then he served the beer—free—to the volunteer firemen fighting the blaze. The fire did $75,000 damage, Fire Chief Clinton Smith estimated.

Statewide Move Is Planned on Panther Project

Watertown, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Proponents of the controversial Panther mountain dam are planning a statewide campaign for passage of a constitutional amendment authorizing its construction.

About 75 persons from several communities met here last night and formed a temporary committee of eight to select a larger statewide committee. Sen. Henry A. Wise, Watertown Republican, presided.

Wise promised an intensive campaign of advertising and speech-making for construction of the dam on the south branch of the Moose river in Herkimer county.

THE AMENDMENT has been passed as required by two separately elected Legislatures and will come up for final action in a referendum next November.

The dam would flood about 4,900 acres of land—1,500 in the Adirondack Forest Preserve and 3,400 leased by the Adirondack League Club, a private sportsmen's group.

Sportmen's groups have opposed the project on the ground that it would infringe on the forest preserve.

PROPONENTS maintain the dam is needed for flood control and electric power generation.

Harold Garno, legislative representative of the state CIO council contended at the meeting that one million CIO members in the state would support the amendment.

Says Ike Agrees

Paris, May 25 (AP)—French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay today said that President Eisenhower had accepted the dates of July 18-21 for the proposed meeting of Big Four chiefs of state. The place for the meeting will be decided by the foreign ministers of the United States, Russia Britain and France when they meet in San Francisco for the anniversary celebration of the United Nations, Pinay told a news conference.

Probe Blast Angle In Airman's Death

Machiasport, Maine, May 25 (AP) — Investigators said last night they are exploring a possibility that debris from nearby blasting operations, accidentally killed Airman 3C Frederick H. Meyer, 19.

The bruised body of Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer of Corona, N. Y., was found Saturday beside a .22 caliber rifle in a gravel pit not far from Bucks Harbor Air Force Station.

Civil investigators said an autopsy showed the serviceman had not been shot. They said that it was established blasting was in progress about the time of Meyer's death, and that rock chunks from the blast flew toward the pit.

The probers said they had found no sign of foul play.

The jet stream is a current of air moving from 100 to 500 miles per hour about eight miles above the earth.

Mandia Bests Farrell; Onteora and New Paltz Capture Other Contests

Marlboro Central scored a clutch victory over Saugerties High yesterday to move a step closer to the 1955 Ulster County Athletic League pennant.

Charlie Mandia stopped the villagers with six hits for a 7 to 1 decision over Jim Farrell, who had one bad inning. Coach Jack Kroh's tossers broke the game apart with five runs in the sixth.

Onteora Central continued its resurgence to crush Wallkill Central, 14 to 1, behind the brilliant 4-hit pitching of Bob Germond and Joe Burke.

New Paltz High scored seven runs in the first two innings and went on to outlast Highland High, 11 to 9, on the Highland diamond.

MANDIA FANNED seven but was only a 2-1 leader over Farrell when the roof fell in on the Saugerties ace in the sixth.

The only extra base blow of the game was by Saugerties' Bill Hanna. Murray Craft and Joe Sarra each had two hits.

Onteora exploded for 11 runs biggest UCAL inning of the season, to rout Wallkill. Six singles, two walks, an error and hit batsmen were the ingredients for the huge uprising. Rotella, Smith, Germond, Hornbeck, Jensen and Rose produced singles during the rally.

HIGHLAND, a heavy favorite outhit the Larries, but New Paltz took advantage of the wildness of three Highland pitchers who doled out 13 walks.

John Gruner, Highland leadoff belted two singles, a double and triple. Don Jayne of the winners and John Gersch and Valentino of Highland cracked homers. Norman Ronk, the New Paltz starter, was credited with the victory.

Jim Uhl had one bad inning and his teammates didn't make any runs, so it added up to a 4-0 victory for the Poughkeepsie baseball Jayvees over Coach Al Grunner's Maroons.

Uhl suffered the letdown in the fifth when Donweit led off with a homer and four straight singles followed for three more runs. Everett Landers pitched the sixth inning.

Carter Shelved As Unavailable

Boston, May 25 (AP) — Lightweight champion Jimmy Carter has been put on the unavailable list by National Boxing Assn. president Tony Petronella until he fulfills his contract for a postponed title fight with Wallace (Bud) Smith in Boston.

Carter's manager Willie Ketchum Monday night announced in New York the champ had a sore throat and was so weakened by his ailment he wouldn't be able to go through with his June 1 nationally-televised 15-rounder at Boston Garden.

Petronella last night countered from Providence, R. I., by placing Carter on the NBA's unavailable list until he meets Smith in Boston as per their contract.

Coast Fighter Upsets Saddler

Sacramento, Calif., May 25 (AP) —Lightweight Joey Lopes likes the featherweight champions. The 24-year-old West Sacramentan already has licked two of them.

Lopes had it all his own way last night as he pounded out a unanimous 10-round nontitle decision over featherweight king Sandy Saddler. Time after time, the young Portuguese-American beat the champ to the punch, landing cleaner and more effective blows.

Lopes, the 10th ranking lightweight, weighed 133¼; Saddler, 130½.

THE LOCAL favorite had Saddler in trouble in the second and ninth rounds. But the experienced champion managed to tie up Lopes after being hit with looping rights and a stinging left jab.

Lopes, who lost a Madison Square Garden fight last March to featherweight Carmelo Costa, scored a second round technical knockout here in the same Memorial Auditorium last February over Percy Bassett. Bassett held the featherweight crown while Saddler was in the army.

Saddler, 28, was gunning for his 100th knockout in 156 fights. The best he could do was to cut Lopes right eye. The opening will keep Lopes out of action for about a month, his handlers said.

Summer Bowling

Ferraro's Summer Mixed League starts its 1955 season Wednesday, June 1, at 8 p. m. instead of May 25 (tonight) as previously planned. There will be a meeting preceding the bowling.

Charge Johnson Was Managed By Ex-Narcotics Violator

Philadelphia, May 25 (AP)—A fight probe witness says Cuban boxer Julio Mederos, the underdog who won a TKO decision over "drugged" Harold Johnson in a nationally-televised fight here May 6, formerly was managed by a convicted narcotics violator.

Pennsylvania's Athletic Commission is conducting the probe into the alleged doping of Johnson. Questioned yesterday was James White, 47, of New York and Miami, who is listed as Mederos' manager of Record.

White testified that Louis Black, also known as Louis Accaroma, managed the 22-year-old Mederos from 1953 until this March—about 10 weeks before the Johnson fight.

The witness said he had turned Mederos over to Black because he (White) was then engaged as boxing promoter and matchmaker in Miami.

Previously, Philadelphia detectives had testified that Black was arrested 10 times on dope charges and that he was paroled after serving five years of a 10-year sentence in Lewisburg, Pa., federal penitentiary on dope charges. Black denied the police charges.

White testified he believed Johnson was in good physical condition the night of the fight, adding "I wish I was in such perfect condition."

The witness said he didn't believe Johnson was drugged by a barbiturate, as commission physicians testified, but insisted he was downed by blows thrown by Mederos. Johnson was unable to answer the bell for the third round and Mederos was awarded a second round TKO.

"I think Johnson suffered a concussion," White said.

San Jose, Calif.—Bobby Sanders, 144½, San Francisco, outpointed Archie Whitewater, 145½, Hamilton Field AFB, 10.

Miami Beach, Fla.—Joe Lindsay, 190½, Brooklyn, outpointed Bert Whitehurst, 190, Baltimore, 10.

Washington — Jimmy Cooper, 129½, Washington, knocked out Harold Smith, 127½, Washington, 8.

City Baseball League Cards June 13 Opener

Five Teams Set In Twi Circuit

City Baseball League has set Monday, June 13, as the opening date for the 1955 season.

Four managers attended last night's organizational meeting at city hall, with Secretary Jim Freligh representing president Fred Davi, who is a patient at the Benedictine Hospital.

The four representatives present were: Jackie Watzka, Ferraro's Bowlodrome; Charlie Havlin, New York Panthers; George Magley, Dobler's; and Johnny Schatzel of the championship Jones Dairy squad.

Magley indicated that Doblers would operate under a new sponsorship this season.

Team rosters and franchise fees will be posted at a meeting scheduled next Tuesday at city hall.

Minoso Leaves Hospital Friday

Chicago, May 25 (AP)—Minnie Minoso, Chicago White Sox outfielder who has been hospitalized after suffering a dizzy spell as the result of being hit by a pitched ball, may be released from Mercy Hospital Friday.

Dr. Harold Voris, neurologist, last night said Minoso is not suffering a brain injury from the skull fracture suffered in New York last week.

Minnie was hit on the left side of his head in New York last Wednesday on a pitch thrown by New York Yankee pitcher Bob Grim.

At first, it was reported there was no fracture. But late yesterday, Dr. John Claridge, White Sox team physician, said Minoso suffered a small fracture in the templar region.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)

PITCHING — Billy Pierce, White Sox, held Cleveland to three hits as Ralph Kiner hit a home run to deprive him of a shutout in the White Sox 4-1 defeat of the Indians.

BATTING — Glen Gorbous, Phillies, collected two doubles and two singles in five trips to the plate the Phillies broke the New York Giant six-game winning streak, 6-2.

SCOREBOARD

By ED WILKS
(The Associated Press)

Billy Pierce and Curt Simmons, a pair of southpaws who have known better days, look like they may be ready to set up shop again. If so, you can bet managers Marty Marion and Mayo Smith will be throwing a lot of business their way.

Billy the Kid has been one of the missing links in Marion's plan to bring the Chicago White Sox an American League pennant. The Sox have been able to hang in there, just a stride or two behind the leaders, without Pierce, but if his arm troubles now are over Chicago could really get in on the scrap.

Pierce gave an indication of his importance to the Sox's flag hopes last night. His three-hitter beat Cleveland 4-1 as Chicago home runs ruined rookie Herb Score and pushed the Sox to within a half-game of the second place Indians.

BILLY FANNED seven while notching his second complete game, flashing some of the stuff that made him the AL's strikeout king in 1953—the year he was 18-12 and the Sox finished 11½ games behind, the closest they had come since 1920.

Simmons didn't quite match Pierce's performance, but with his Philadelphia Phils sunk in the National League basement, Smith won't quibble. Simmons looked his best since 1953 as he went 7 1/3 innings before tiring last night. And with some nice help from Jack Meyer, that was enough to snap a six-game winning streak by the New York Giants 6-2.

Simmons, who helped the Phils to their 1950 flag but who fell off after losing part of a toe in a lawn mower accident two summers ago, fanned five and spaced five hits. It was his first victory in five appearances after shoulder trouble in spring training.

THE GIANTS weren't the only ones to see a string halted. In the American League, Chuck Stobbs and the Washington Senators smashed first place New York's seven-game string by beating the Yankees 3-2. Baltimore ended its five-game losing slump 6-1 against Boston while Detroit beat Kansas City 9-6.

In the National, Pittsburgh buried its 11-game losing string by humiliating the first place Brooklyn Dodgers 15-1.

Rain postponed St. Louis at Chicago and Cincinnati at Milwaukee.

Pierce's third victory against two defeats couldn't have come at a better time for the White Sox. Hours earlier they learned that outfielder Minnie Minoso wasn't fully recovered from a beaning at New York last week and would need additional rest.

The Sox caught up with Score in the seventh breaking up a no-hit bid with three singles and a run. Then after Ralph Kiner homered to tie it, Chico Carrasquel and Bib Nieman homered to score three runs in the eighth.

SCORE, now 4-3, fanned 11 in his eight innings to regain the AL lead from New York's Bob Turley 77-72.

At Philadelphia, Meyer saved Simmons by getting Dusty Rhodes and Willie Mays on pop ups with the bases loaded in the eighth. Glen Gorbous sent Jim Hearn to his third defeat against six successes with two doubles and a pair of singles that scored two tide-turning runs.

With the Giants' defeat, Brooklyn retained its six-game lead if not its pride. The Bucs hammered loser Johnny Podres and five reliefers for 19 hits.

The Yanks had three doubles among their five hits off Stobbs, who won his first decision, but paired them only in the eighth. That's when Mickey Mantle got his second two-bagger to tie the score a 2-2. Mickey Vernon's long sacrifice fly brought Stobbs home with the winning run in the ninth. Tom Sturdivant lost it in relief of Bob Grim, but the Yanks held on to their one-game lead.

AT KANSAS CITY the Tigers lost Harvey Kuenn for 10 days when the leading AL batsman pulled a muscle while running out a first-inning hit.

Jim McDonald and Ray Moore got the job done for the Orioles with the help of Cal Abrams' 3-for-4 and Gene Woodling's two runs batted in. McDonald, who came to Baltimore with Woodling in the Turley deal, won his first as a starter with Moore blanking the Bosox over the last 2 1/3 innings.

Schatzel Averages 188 In Woman's Major Loop

A late season slump cost Rose Schatzel a highly coveted 190 average in the Woman's Major League, but her 188.93 still stands as the highest average ever compiled by a local woman bowler.

It was in this same league that Mrs. Schatzel fired the first "700" in local history, a 709 and a 267 single, both KWBA records for the season.

EVELYN GROSS who made an excellent comeback this season, finished second with 167.13 in 81 sets. Rounding out the first five were Tess Moss (159.32), Joan Krueger (154.14), and Mary Wyant (151).

Mrs. Gross also had a 248 single and Lorraine Ferraro a 240. In the triple department, Mrs. Gross slammed 617 and Lorraine Ferraro 622. High team marks were: Stuyvesant Motors 705, Bert Bishop 704; Jake's Grill 1956 and 1987.

Sutyvesant Motors copped first honors and Bert Bishops won the second half.

Scott Frost New Odds-on Favorite In Hambletonian

Goshen—With the Kentucky Derby won by a California horse, latest reports from that state strongly indicate that another equine Californian will be tough to bet in the $100,000 Hambletonian stake, equivalent in harness racing to the Derby, set for August 3 at Good Time Park here.

Scott Frost, owned by Sol. A. Camp, Shafter, Calif., and trained and driven by Joe O'Brien, 38, Del Mar, Calif., is the current odds-on favorite to win the 30th Hambletonian against a current entry of 67 other crack three-year-olds. Sharp Note, who quietly came out of California in 1952 without the advance billing that Scott Frost enjoys from a great season, was the last winner from the far west to capture the top sulky derby.

City Baseball League Cards June 13 Opener

Five Teams Set In Twi Circuit

City Baseball League has set Monday, June 13, as the opening date for the 1955 season.

Four managers attended last night's organizational meeting at city hall, with Secretary Jim Freligh representing president Fred Davi, who is a patient at the Benedictine Hospital.

The four representatives present were: Jackie Watzka, Ferraro's Bowlodrome; Charlie Havlin, New York Panthers; George Magley, Dobler's; and Johnny Schatzel of the championship Jones Dairy squad.

Magley indicated that Doblers would operate under a new sponsorship this season.

Team rosters and franchise fees will be posted at a meeting scheduled next Tuesday at city hall.

Minoso Leaves Hospital Friday

Chicago, May 25 (AP)—Minnie Minoso, Chicago White Sox outfielder who has been hospitalized after suffering a dizzy spell as the result of being hit by a pitched ball, may be released from Mercy Hospital Friday.

Dr. Harold Voris, neurologist, last night said Minoso is not suffering a brain injury from the skull fracture suffered in New York last week.

Minnie was hit on the left side of his head in New York last Wednesday on a pitch thrown by New York Yankee pitcher Bob Grim.

At first, it was reported there was no fracture. But late yesterday, Dr. John Claridge, White Sox team physician, said Minoso suffered a small fracture in the templar region.

Billy Pierce and Curt Simmons, a pair of southpaws who have known better days, look like they may be ready to set up shop again. If so, you can bet managers Marty Marion and Mayo Smith will be throwing a lot of business their way.

Billy the Kid has been one of the missing links in Marion's plan to bring the Chicago White Sox an American League pennant. The Sox have been able to hang in there, just a stride or two behind the leaders, without Pierce, but if his arm troubles now are over Chicago could really get in on the scrap.

Pierce gave an indication of his importance to the Sox's flag hopes last night. His three-hitter beat Cleveland 4-1 as Chicago home runs ruined rookie Herb Score and pushed the Sox to within a half-game of the second place Indians.

BILLY FANNED seven while notching his second complete game, flashing some of the stuff that made him the AL's strikeout king in 1953—the year he was 18-12 and the Sox finished 11½ games behind, the closest they had come since 1920.

Rain postponed St. Louis at Chicago and Cincinnati at Milwaukee.

Pierce's third victory against two defeats couldn't have come at a better time for the White Sox. Hours earlier they learned that outfielder Minnie Minoso wasn't fully recovered from a beaning at New York last week and would need additional rest.

Scott Frost New Odds-on Favorite In Hambletonian

Goshen—With the Kentucky Derby won by a California horse, latest reports from that state strongly indicate that another equine Californian will be tough to bet in the $100,000 Hambletonian stake, equivalent in harness racing to the Derby, set for August 3 at Good Time Park here.

Scott Frost, owned by Sol. A. Camp, Shafter, Calif., and trained and driven by Joe O'Brien, 38, Del Mar, Calif., is the current odds-on favorite to win the 30th Hambletonian against a current entry of 67 other crack three-year-olds. Sharp Note, who quietly came out of California in 1952 without the advance billing that Scott Frost enjoys from a great season, was the last winner from the far west to capture the top sulky derby.

Football Asks Court to Kill Anti-Trust Suit

Philadelphia, May 25 (AP)—Attorneys for the National Football League, citing the U. S. Supreme Court ruling that baseball is a sport and not interstate commerce, have asked the U. S. District Court to throw out a $2,100,000 anti-trust suit against the league and nine of its clubs.

The suit was brought by the bankrupt Liberty Broadcasting System Inc., which charged the league and the nine teams conspired to prevent it from broadcasting certain games, an action which allegedly led Liberty into bankruptcy.

In a 57-page printed brief submitted yesterday, counsel for the defendants, declared:

"THE CONTENTION that the interstate radio broadcasting and television of professional football games had made it an interstate activity finds no support in law. The sale by clubs of the rights to broadcast play by play accounts and to televise such plays does not change the local character of the football game nor does such a sale change the game of professional football from a sport into trade or commerce."

The defense said professional baseball "differs basically from professional football only in the sport that is played." It said that Supreme Court ruling on baseball applies "with equal force to the sport of professional football.

District Judge Alan K. Grim will hear oral arguments on the case June 3.

Three Harness Tracks Showed Profits, Two in Red in 1954

New York, May 25 (AP)—Roosevelt Raceway Inc. on Long Island made a profit of $885,000 and Yonkers Raceway Inc. a profit of $750,000 in 1954, according to figures released by State Harness Racing Commissioner George P. Monaghan.

Net losses were reported for last year by two upstate harness tracks—Mid-State Raceway Inc. and the Orange County Driving Park Assn.

The other harness tracks in the state had net profits.

Financial figures for all harness tracks were released by Monaghan yesterday. He said a total of $269,510,458 was bet at all the tracks last year.

THESE FIGURES were given for the Hambletonian, the classic run at Goshen: Handle (total amount bet), $512,000; gross, $107,000; expenses, $225,000; net loss, $118,000. Yonkers Raceway, which ran the Hambletonian, sustained the loss which is deductible from its net income. This left it a combined net income of $750,000 for the track at Yonkers and the Hambletonian.

Mid-State Raceway Inc., at Vernon Downs, Vernon, reported a loss of $30,800.

The Orange County Driving Park Assn., which holds meetings at Goshen and Saratoga, reported a net combined loss of $44,000.

These net profits were reported: Batavia Downs at Batavia, about $120,000; Hamburg Track at Buffalo, $60,000 estimated; Saratoga Raceway, $88,550.

Football Asks Court to Kill Anti-Trust Suit

Philadelphia, May 25 (AP)—Attorneys for the National Football League, citing the U. S. Supreme Court ruling that baseball is a sport and not interstate commerce, have asked the U. S. District Court to throw out a $2,100,000 anti-trust suit against the league and nine of its clubs.

The suit was brought by the bankrupt Liberty Broadcasting System Inc., which charged the league and the nine teams conspired to prevent it from broadcasting certain games, an action which allegedly led Liberty into bankruptcy.

In a 57-page printed brief submitted yesterday, counsel for the defendants, declared:

"THE CONTENTION that the interstate radio broadcasting and television of professional football games had made it an interstate activity finds no support in law. The sale by clubs of the rights to broadcast play by play accounts and to televise such plays does not change the local character of the football game nor does such a sale change the game of professional football from a sport into trade or commerce."

The defense said professional baseball "differs basically from professional football only in the sport that is played." It said that Supreme Court ruling on baseball applies "with equal force to the sport of professional football.

District Judge Alan K. Grim will hear oral arguments on the case June 3.

Three Harness Tracks Showed Profits, Two in Red in 1954

New York, May 25 (AP)—Roosevelt Raceway Inc. on Long Island made a profit of $885,000 and Yonkers Raceway Inc. a profit of $750,000 in 1954, according to figures released by State Harness Racing Commissioner George P. Monaghan.

Net losses were reported for last year by two upstate harness tracks—Mid-State Raceway Inc. and the Orange County Driving Park Assn.

The other harness tracks in the state had net profits.

Financial figures for all harness tracks were released by Monaghan yesterday. He said a total of $269,510,458 was bet at all the tracks last year.

THESE FIGURES were given for the Hambletonian, the classic run at Goshen: Handle (total amount bet), $512,000; gross, $107,000; expenses, $225,000; net loss, $118,000. Yonkers Raceway, which ran the Hambletonian, sustained the loss which is deductible from its net income. This left it a combined net income of $750,000 for the track at Yonkers and the Hambletonian.

Mid-State Raceway Inc., at Vernon Downs, Vernon, reported a loss of $30,800.

The Orange County Driving Park Assn., which holds meetings at Goshen and Saratoga, reported a net combined loss of $44,000.

These net profits were reported: Batavia Downs at Batavia, about $120,000; Hamburg Track at Buffalo, $60,000 estimated; Saratoga Raceway, $88,550.

Two Air Officers Suffer Burns in Crash

Burlington, Vt., May 25 (AP)—Two air force officers today were transferred to a San Antonio, Tex., military hospital to undergo treatment for severe burns suffered in the crash yesterday of an F89 Scorpion jet plane.

Lt. Louis R. Hornbeck of Rome, N. Y., the pilot, and Lt. Robert W. Leason of Boston, radar observer, were thrown clear of the flaming wreckage as it crashed into Muddy Brook, a mile and a half from Burlington Airport.

Cause of the crash was not immediately determined, but authorities said the plane was trying to make an emergency landing.

Now you Know!
The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: I've heard that this new Additional Extended Coverage insurance actually insures against damage from frozen water pipes. Is this true?
ANSWER: If the house is both occupied and heated, the risk is covered. There is no coverage if the house has been either unoccupied or unheated for 72 hours prior to loss.
* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.
